Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Becky Fischer, welcome to my world where it is naturally supernatural.
Breathe in; I want to breathe in that rarefied air of heaven.
It is so wonderful on this set, I just pray that that rarified air of heaven go out over your television, or over your computer, let me ask you a question, I want to stretch you, can I stretch you just a little bit.

Two little girls were praying in Africa, their mother died, one of the girls in the Spirit goes to heaven, gets her mother back, I told you I would stretch you, we will find out about that from Becky and a lot of other children.
You know something that is outrageous, you are the one that told me about this, the Barna survey says that 70 percent of children raised in the church by the time they are teenagers they leave. Why?

Becky: Sid there is absolutely no place where we can go and find exactly why, but when you look at these children we are feeding them in our churches with basic Bible stories for the first twelve years of their life, by the time a child is 13 years old, he thinks he knows, he will tell you he thinks he knows everything there is to know about God, and has no further need of going to church.

That same twelve-year-old will tell you to his knowledge he has never heard the voice of God nor felt his presence in his entire life.

And those aren't just average kids off the street; those are kids that are being raised in our bible believing churches.
And so, I mean there is nothing that is more boring than religion without reality, without life, it is no wonder that our kids are vacating the churches.

Sid: You know you have so many stories about young people that are moving, like the people you see on TV, but they are just young kids, tell me one that comes to mind.

Becky: Well I tell you Sid, this is a generation that has been created for the supernatural, and it is amazing across the world the number of children that are being used by God when you create a platform for them.

And what they will do is they will grab, if you give them one ounce of opportunity to press into the presence of God they will grab it and run with it.
I think of so many children, I think of one time when I was holding a Vacation Bible School if you will, and I taught the children on healing and I told them, right before the service I had a sense from the Lord that they were going to, there were going to be children there that were going to get a sensation in their body, this is typical of some ministers on TV, where there were, maybe a pain that they had never had in that place before and that that was a signal from the Holy Spirit that they were, that there was someone on the audience who needed healing in that area. And so when I called for those kids to come forward, there was at least 15 children who came up and said I have got a pain here, I don't ever have pain there, we called the audience, someone would come forward, that child would pray for them and they were healed right then and there.

Sid: Do you know I believe that children have the purest gifts of all the gifts of the Spirit and we have missed it big time by putting them, demoting them to puppets and popcorn.

Becky: You know we don't think as a Christian culture, and this is what drives me crazy because other religions do believe in their children operating in the supernatural, but in the church we think that if we give them salvation, and in some church circles, they say well get them filled with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, but beyond that we have no spiritual currency assigned to children whatsoever.

Sid: But 70 percent of them, because of our system, are vacating.

Becky: Absolutely, they find not of reality and nothing of value, this is a generation that wants reality.

Sid: I believe this is the generation that is going to welcome in the King, and there was a quote by John G. Lake that you mention in your book.

Becky: Yes, John G. Lake said, "When you hear the children travail."

Sid: And what is travail?

Becky: Travail is one of the deepest forms of prayer that you get so into the world of prayer that you can't even say anything with your mouth, it just is groanings that come out from the bottom of your heart, and when you hear the children began to travail in prayer, "know that Jesus has one foot in the door."

Sid: Okay, let's look at some children travailing right now.

Press in kids, press in.

Unlike McDonalds this in not about how fast you can go through the drive through, you want something from God you are going to have to cook a little.

You have to stay in the pot and let him simmer you in the Holy Ghost.

Man: If the Lord has touched you tonight I want to hear about it, somebody come tell me what happened.

Little Girl: We praise you God and we proclaim the Lion of Judah over our hearts.

Sid: You know some of you are watching that and you are saying, "These kids, there is something wrong with them, they are abnormal, they are not acting like kids in my Sunday School, they are not acting like the kids in my church, Becky Fisher what would you say to that person?"

Becky: I would say to that person,

"You have never given your children an opportunity to truly tap in to the deep things of God.

We have consistently given kids, in fact you can go to any Christian Book Store and you have got a list of about five things that they will teach kids, you teach them the Ten Commandments, you teach them the basic Bible stories, you teach them about Christmas and Easter, you teach them about gifts, the fruit of the Spirit, the armor of God, and that type of thing but we never give them the true meat of the word, and give them an opportunity to really step out and do what we taught them to do.

They don't want to just hear about Jesus healing the sick any more Sid; they want to heal the sick for themselves.

Sid: I want them to heal the sick for themselves.

You want them to heal the sick for themselves.

That's why you really need Becky's book,

"Redefining Children's Ministry," it is time that we redefine all the gifts of the Spirit, how to activate them, be right back after this word and we are going to find out about children moving in the supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Beck Fischer, Becky what do psychics know that most Christians don't?

Becky: Well in the first place, most psychics believe in the supernatural and most evangelical Christians don't, that is the big headliner, but the thing is, because they already believe in the supernatural, and I can't get into everything Sid, because it is an enormous subject, but they have identified a group of kids that they believe are supersensitive to the spirit world, they call them indigo kids, you can call them psychic kids, there are even shows on TV now that highlight these psychic kids who have paranormal abilities to see into the spirit world, to operate in the spirit world, heal people with crystals or the laying on of hands or whatever, and they are actively, the psychics and the New Age people are actively training their kids to become better at what they do, where the Christians are sitting over here, we are still passing out sugar cookies or Kool-Aid and coloring pages of Adam and Eve.

Sid: I might add that is a counterfeit, the psychics are a counterfeit, how do I know this?

Deuteronomy the 18th chapter calls this an abomination and so it lists all the popular psychic activities of our day from Harry Potter to channeling to fortunetellers.

All these are counterfeits.

Why do people go for counterfeits?

Because they have never seen a demonstration of the real thing and I am reminded of a scripture, "A little child will lead them."

I want you to see what happens when a young kid has an alcoholic brother and decides

"I am going to pray for this guy to be free."

Let's look at that.

Becky: You want, first of all wait a minute, we have got to talk this over, you want him to get broken from alcoholic - right?

IF he doesn't have Jesus in his heart it ain't gonna work.

We need to pray that he gets saved.

You understand that?

Because that is where the power is going to come from.

So we need to pray that he gets saved and the rest of it will take care of itself, all right?

Little Boy: Lord please, just break this, just break this from my brother, I don't want him to be an alcoholic any more, I want him to be saved, I don't want him to go to hell, I want him to go to heaven with me and I don't want him to die, please let him get saved.

Devil quit stabbing him.

I just want him to stop drinking,

I want him to be a Christian; I'm tired of it,

I don't want it to happen anymore.

Sid: What a pure prayer.

I'll tell you something, I saw something in that young boy and you see this all the time in young people, tell me about what happened in Monterey, Mexico.

Becky: I'll tell you Sid, the counterfeit of the psychics, they have the counterfeit, the real thing is what we call the word of wisdom and the word of knowledge, and there was a group of kids that went on a missions trip, it was with one of our directors, they went in to a church of 600 people, they began prophesizing over these people, and these are children now.

Sid: Children are prophesizing?

Becky: Children prophesizing over adults.

Sid: I would rather have a prophecy from a child than an adult any day.

Becky: Absolutely, absolutely, they will read your mail like nobody's business because they don't have any inhibitions; they don't know it is politically correct. And anybody this young boy, there was a woman standing in line and someone was about to prophesy over him and one of the boys said wait a minute, he says I have got a word for that man in the back there.

He pointed him out and said, "Sir, God tells me that you are thinking about divorcing your wife."

And he said, "I am telling you don't do it because the Lord is going to save your marriage."

The woman who is standing in the front of the line begins to weep, she says, "That's my husband."

And they were reconciled right then and there.

Sid: And then did they prophesy for more people?

Becky: They prophesied over all 600 people in that place. It was amazing.

Sid: 600 kids?

Becky: No the adults.

Sid: No, but the kids were prophesying over 600 adults.

Becky: It took them five hours to get through everybody.

And they just hung in there like troopers, they just went.

Sid: You have got to tell me about these two girls in Africa.

Becky: Oh there are so many stories out of Africa, and probably one of the reasons is they very easily flow in the supernatural because witchcraft is all around them.

But these two particular little girls, they were very, very poor, lived in a mud hut, the whole thing, their mother died, there was no father, I don't know if he left them or died grievously or what, but they are alone in the home and their mother dies, the little girls begin to weep just profusely because they know what that means, they are going to have to be kicked out of their house, go live with relatives, all of these things, and finally one of the little girls, the older girl about nine years old said to her sister, "Stop, we can't cry anymore."

The little sister said, "Why not?"

She said, "Because our pastor told us that God can do anything."

She says, "We must pray that our mother comes back to life again."

So they began to pray and instantly that older girl found herself at the gates of heaven and there was an angel standing there and the angel says, "What are you doing here?"

And she says, "Our mother has died and I have come to get her, we need her on earth."

She said the angel reached out and put like a glowing ball in her hand, I have no idea the significance of that,

I don't read anything about glowing balls in the Bible, but this is the experience of this little girl, and suddenly she was back at the bedside of her mother again, and she laid hands on her mother and began to pray and her mother came back to life.

No adults were around.

Sid: You know what you are describing to me?

What you are describing to me is the opposite of what we see in religion, but exactly what we see in the Bible.

This is normal, aren't you tired of being abnormal?

And I have good news you don't have to be a child to be normal, we are going to be back right after this word and you are going to find out about a lot of normal children and let me tell you something, when they have encounters with God like this they won't be among those 70 percent that are never going to darken the doors of the church again because they have just been bored with religion, don't go away, we'll be right back after this word.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Becky Fischer, and this book is so amazing Becky, tell me about the time the children two years before 9-11 occurred started prophesying about it.

Becky: Sid it is an amazing story, this was a group of children that someone had worked with very diligently to teach them about intercessory prayer.

Intercessory prayer is when you pray for someone other than yourself.

And as they would go into prayer they would pray in unknown languages, we call that in the Bible "speaking in tongues."

And as they would begin to speak in tongues they would get so deep into prayer without them realizing it English words would begin to come out.

They had an adult there that was writing down all the English so they could look back at the end of the prayer time and just see what they had prayed over, okay.

Well they did that every single prayer time.

After 9-11 happened one of those people that wrote things down went to the leader of that prayer group and said Isabella you need to go back and look at your journals.

I know those kids prayed over 9-11 at least two years ago.
And she brushed it off at first but finally went to look at it.
Sid, it was amazing the things that were coming out.
It was things like American 767 back to the gate,
you are grounded, you are grounded.
It was things like blueprints, underground blueprints, they would be talking about viruses and they would be speaking to different countries saying, it is not your time, go back.
And it was amazing the things that they were saying.
And if I might just look at this very quickly because it was just, this is the one that killed me the most, is when they would, when they would, the very last one they were saying, "Father you reveal it."
Listen to this one, out of the body, east coast, east coast, her groanings, east coast groaning of souls out of the body, last time from the people that go up, east coast, east coast,
last time, the souls groaning, such a crying out.
It was all about, I mean how could that not be about 9-11, they prayed over it, Sid we know that disaster could have been so much worse than it was.
And there were many people praying for our nation,
but I believe God heard the prayers of the children and there were fewer causalities than there needed to be because children were praying years in advance.
Sid: Tell me about some physical healings like Ivy.
Becky: Oh Ivy is an amazing child, when she was two years old her grandfather had had an operation on his eyes, and for whatever reason the eyes were not forming scar tissue, they were not healing.
He was only supposed to be out of work for one week but six weeks later he was still not healed.
He came over to the house one day to visit, and Ivy was playing in her bedroom and he got up to leave and Ivy came out and said, "Where is grandpa?"
And her mother said, "Oh he had to go home."
She goes no, I have to do something.
She goes out the door, running down the street going "Grandpa, Grandpa stop, I have to do something."
Well Grandpa turned around, lifted her up, and she took his sunglasses off, those kind that shades where no light could get in, she took them off, two years old now, id, she kissed each one of his eyes, said Jesus, jumped down out of his arms and went back into the house and one week later he was back at work totally healed.
Sid: And you know the fact that you teach these children to hear God's voice could even save their life, tell me about the puppet show.
Becky: Well we had a young girl by the name of Courtney and we were teaching children how to hear the voice of God, which is a basic premise of Christianity, you can't be saved and not hear, learn how to hears God's voice, that's how we know we are sons and daughters of God is when we hear his voice.
So we were teaching the children that many times when God speaks to us and he is trying to warn us about something it is a very, it is like a yucky feeling on the inside, like a knot in your stomach, a hard scratchy feeling or whatever.

Well this little girl was invited to a party with some children who were not Christians, it was a sleep-over and she really wanted to go, but she decided that she was going to pray and find out if God wanted her to go. So she sat down and began to pray and she told her mom, "I got a very yucky hard scratchy feeling in my heart, I don't think I am supposed to go to that party." So she didn't go.

Monday, the next Monday at school all those children were talking with her telling her what a great time they had, she found out Sid, that they had séances and were calling up dead spirits at that party.

Sid: She could have gone demonically possessed.

Becky: She could have gotten so involved in that and been harassed, but the Holy Spirit spared her from that because she knew how to hear his voice.

Sid: Speaking of hearing God's voice, of all the various things you talk about in this book, there is one that really speaks to me and that has to do with Joshua, tell me about Joshua.

Becky: Joshua was a four year old little boy and he had, he was an American who had been raised here in the states and at the age of four his parents became missionaries to Great Britain.

While he was in Great Britain he found out that his children's pastor back in the states had become extremely, seriously ill with something very rare and she, through a pregnancy, and she had a blood clot that had gone to her head and for all practical intents and purposes she was brain dead, she was gone.

And they heard about it over in Great Britain and as soon as Joshua heard he told his parents,

"I have got to fast and pray for Shia."

And so he began to pray and they took a tape recorder and had his pray on this tape recorder and it was an amazing prayer, you hear this cherubic little voice just praying, "And Shia now I am going to pray for you."

And he says, "In the Name of Jesus Shia you will live and not die and you will raise your little girl."

Sid: Let's hear that right now, we have that tape."

Sid: So Becky, what happened to this Shia?

Becky: Shia came back to life and she did live to raise her little daughter, last I heard she was doing well.

Sid: And tell me about repentance, I mean I know adults need to repent for sin because sin in God's eyes is a stench, and God is too good, you don't want anything separating you between yourself and God, but what about children, do they need to repent?

Becky: Absolutely Sid, as soon as a child is old enough to understand that he is you know, disobeying Mom and Dad he is old enough to understand he has sin in his life.

Now you don't beat a kid over the head with sin,

I mean how bad can a five year old sin?

But I tell you what, those children know because they,

they sense their own sin, even though they haven't murdered anybody, they haven't done anything terribly bad, a child, every human being innately knows that they are sinners in need of grace and mercy from a living God. When you present a child with the fact that we have all sinned, we have all done things we know we shouldn't have done and we need Jesus to forgive us, they immediately respond to that, they understand. They know when they have done something wrong, every child, listen we are all going to stand accountable, and I don't care how young the child is, he still needs a Savior. Sid: And you know what, sin is sin. People say well those are the big sins and these are the little sins, no, sin is separating yourself from love. Love is God. And so therefore not only do children need to repent, but everyone that can see me and hear me right now needs to repent. Repent means, there are two ways of looking at it, one is to turn from your sin, but the better way is to turn from your sin and turn to the one who will give you the power to overcome that sin, that is God. So what I need you to do right now, for your own sake, so you can have nothing separating you from God is to say "Holy Spirit, search me, show me the things I need to tell God that I am sorry for." Do that right now, just right now say, "God show me what I need to repent of." And then tell him you oar sorry and say, "In Jesus Name forgive me, and Jesus you are so good I want to experience you like the guest on It's Supernatural, I want to experience you for myself, I am tired of watching other people have fun with God, I want to have fun with you God." And make Jesus your Lord; ask him to live inside of you, your own words, I mean I just prayed a two word prayer and it transformed my life, "Jesus help!" That was my prayer. If you can't do anything else do it right now, Jesus help, and repent of your sin. Get clean, it's good.
