Sid: Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world,
where it's naturally supernatural.

My guests, Jordan and Michelle Cook.

Michelle, when did you first realize that Jordan had a gift from God in painting?

She not only has a gift in painting,

but she prophecies in the painting.

When did you see this talent in her?

Michelle: The first time I ever noticed she liked to paint,
we were out in the garden,

and she was dipping her finger in the hose water and putting her hand across the concrete to make pictures.

She kept doing this at home where she would have her reader books, and she would take a basting brush out of the kitchen and she'd dip it in color and dip it in other pages on the book that matched that color.

So I bought her a set of paints to use for the first time.

We put her in the high chair,

and she started painting herself.

We didn't give her a brush...

Sid: How old was she?

Michelle: She was 2.

What she painted was a handprint. You can show it.

Sid: Jordan, would you hold this up?

Michelle: Each finger had it's own color, and in the center is a heart, in the very center.

It's a blood spot like the crucifixion story.

Sid: Jordan, why did you use all those different colors?

Jordan: Well, because God's all the colors.

That was my first canvas.

Sid: And why did you put the red heart in His hand?

Jordan: Well, He was crucified,

why don't we do it for Him?

Sid: But what I don't understand is,

you didn't understand that when you were 2 years old, did you?

Jordan: No, I really didn't.

Sid: So how do you account for that?

Michelle: Well, I couldn't.

At first I thought it might be a mistake, but she pointed at it, and she was saying "God loves everyone."

Sid: A few years ago, a sickness erupted in you from a faulty shot as a child. Tell me about this.

Michelle: I didn't know I'd been treated with a bad vaccination until I was older and something went wrong.

I'd gotten some wisdom teeth pulled, and got very, very sick.

My jaw started aching, I had a terrible fever and they couldn't find out the cause of it.

After about a year and a half of tests, they identified that it was from a tainted virus, and they really didn't have a cure for it because there was no money in studying it.

Sid: What was the chance of you not surviving?

Michelle: Of the people who received that batch, there was only two percent who survived, and of the people who did survive, they were mentally compromised.

They told me I was already a walking miracle, it's just that they couldn't tell me how long that would stay with me.

Probably I would get worse until I died, but they couldn't tell me when that would be.

Sid: Your body was actually breaking down.

Michelle: Very much so, yeah.

It was a series of six or seven surgeries in a row.

Sid: Jordan, you're concerned about your mother, so tell me about this painting called "Worship".

Jordan: Well, it's her worshipping God, of course, for being healed.

Sid: Did you pray for her to be healed?

Jordan: Very, very, very often!

Michelle: Yeah, every day.

Jordan: Like five times a day or so, or more than that.

Sid: You know what I have found?

I've spent my lifetime investigating how God heals people, and I have found that there's no formula for God, because God's so big and so loving and so diverse. But, there is one constant, and that is the most healings occur when people aren't even praying to be healed, when they're doing what this picture signifies, worshipping God.

When you were 8 years old, it was your birthday, and what happened?

Jordan: Yeah! Just last year, actually.

Anyway, what happened is, I was reading a little book, just sitting in bed, and I saw a figure writing on a notepad on my little bed stand. And I heard Jesus say "Ask."

I just knew it was Him.

Sid: Was that the first time you've seen Jesus?

Jordan: Yeah.

Sid: Pretty exciting! I have never seen Him.

Can I touch you? Ha ha!

And so, He said "Ask"?

Jordan: "Ask."

Sid: And what did you do?

Jordan: Well, I was just guessing that He was asking me what I wanted for my birthday.

I asked for my mom to be healed.
He said "Done" and disappeared.
Sid: And a few days later, Michelle,
you had a doctor's appointment. Tell me about that.
Michelle: Oh, she did not want me to go to that.
Sid: Why?
Jordan: Because she was already healed!
She was just wasting her money.
Sid: Oh, sorry for asking. Ha ha!
Michelle: She kept saying "Mom, you're wasting your money. You're wasting your time."
I explained to her that I thought it would be very good to have it confirmed,
and that it would show people something concrete.
Sid: Well, in this case - I love you - but in this case, I agree with your mom. Get it confirmed.
Michelle: Absolutely. So, I went anyway, because I didn't feel any different, and I expected to.
Sid: For sure. Jesus came and gave her a birthday present, your healing.
Michelle: Yeah. I expected to feel something.
I didn't have any pain, that's true, and that was really good,
but I was tired, and I didn't feel like I expected.
When I got healed, I thought I would be full of energy and feeling great.
I drove to the doctor who had diagnosed me
and been working with me.
Every six weeks I'd go in for treatment.
The first time I noticed something wasn't normal,
he kept asking me to wait and wait.
After about fifteen minutes,
I asked him if there was a problem,
and he said the machine wasn't working.
Sid: Good problem.
Michelle: They asked me to come back in a week,
so I did. The second time I came in and they tested me,
the machine wasn't working, supposedly.
Jordan: Again.
Michelle: In reality, it was working just fine,
they just couldn't detect any virus in my system at all.
Sid: What'd the doctor say about this?
Michelle: He sat back like this, like he was defeated, and he said "I don't say this often,
but this is a miracle. It has to be."
I can't even find a trace of it ever being in your body."
And he kind of scrunched up his nose and said
"I'm going to lunch", and he left.
Sid: Jordan, tell me again what Jesus said to you.
Jordan: Well, He said "Ask."
I just guessed He was asking me what I wanted for my birthday.
I told Him I wanted my mom healed, and, "Done."
He disappeared. That's it.
Sid: This is one of my favorite of your paintings, Jordan, and the reason it's one of my favorites is because when I look at it, it quickens within me to worship God.
You wrote a little prayer on the back.
Would you mind reading that prayer to us right now?

Jordan: Sure. "In Jesus' name,
I pray for people all around the world to know You, God.
Heal them like You healed my mom.
Take away the bad things and replace them with good things.
Come and fix their hearts. Amen."

Sid: Jordan, I asked you to ask Jesus
what you should do on this television show, and this morning He told you. What did He tell you to do?

Jordan: He said to pray for people to be healed.

Sid: Ok, get ready,
because Jesus is about ready to say "Done."
We'll be right back.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Jordan and Michelle Cook.
Jordan was given a gift from God.
But you know what, Michelle? I believe it had a lot to do with what you did when you were pregnant with Jordan.
What did you do?

Michelle: I played music and prayed for the baby
all the time, every day. Every single day
I wanted her to be surrounded with worship music.

Sid: You know what's so amazing,
for those that have perhaps tuned in for the first time,
is Jordan has a supernatural gift of painting that is prophetic.

But you told me something interesting, Jordan.
You said that you told your mom
that you would like to be on It's Supernatural.

The two of you prayed, and what happened the next day?

Jordan: You called us, and I got to be on here. Wahoo!

(laughter)

Sid: All of your artwork excites me,

but this is very, very special.

I wonder if you would tell me about Jeff.

Michelle: You want Jordan to tell you? I'll tell you.

Jeff is a very special friend of ours from the Post Office...

Jordan: I want to do it.

Michelle: Ok.

Jordan: What happened is, he was going to have a race.

He's part of Racers for Christ.

They call him The Rev, because he does motorcycles.

He races for Christ.

Sid: I get that.

Jordan: Right after I painted him this,

he went into a 90 mile an hour crash on a brick wall.

Sid: But wait a second, this is a painting of a man on a motorcycle riding on water.

So he's prophetically being protected.

But he normally doesn't have a red vest.

Why did you change the color of his normal vest?

Jordan: It's red like the blood of Jesus.

Sid: So you prophetically said he's going to be protected.

Jordan: Yeah.

Sid: Michelle, what happened at his race?

Michelle: He got up to the starting line,

and there was an intercessor that met him there,

a lady that had been praying for his ministry for some time.

She saw him wearing a helmet of gold and a red vest.

She told him that, but she didn't know what it meant.

Well Jeff knew, because he'd already received this picture, and he said that the helmet signified being promoted, because Jordan told him he was going to be pulled to a higher place.

And that's exactly what happened after the race,

he got promoted.

But, the part that we didn't really think about

was the danger involved in this race.

The reason Jordan had painted him with the blood of Jesus is because he was going to get in a terrible crash.

The man in front of him skidded out of control,

he couldn't stop, and he did indeed hit a wall and absolutely totaled the bike. Just smashed it.

Normally, at that kind of speed, you don't walk away from it, and he really did. He got up,

he had an injury to his leg, and that was it.

Sid: I don't know a lot about racing,

but that sounds like a miracle to me.

Michelle: It was a miracle, and everybody knew it.

Sid: I think it's almost, Jordan,

like you were praying for him as you painted.

You weren't praying, but that was like praying.

In fact, I understand you use very unconventional methods for your artwork. What does she use?

Tell me what she started with.

Michelle: She will start with anything.

She started with her fingers,

but she'll paint with toothbrushes, toothpicks,

little bitty pieces of her hair, or sometimes plants outside, like pine needles or things. Whatever she wants.

Sid: Have you given her art lessons?
Michelle: No.
Sid: Why?
Michelle: One time I took her into a crafts store.
They had some people there,
and they were going to do art classes.
One lady showed her how to draw a rose,
and ever since then, that's the only way she's drawn a rose.
I kind of think it wrecked her freedom,
so we just never did.
Sid: Jordan, help me understand this.
When you paint, how do you paint?
Do you hear things? Does Jesus paint through you?
Jordan: He shows me a picture in my head.
Sid: Oh really?
Jordan: And sometimes He paints with me.
Sid: He paints with you?
Jordan: Yeah.
Sid: What do you mean by that?
Jordan: Well, He made us, He's an artist. Ha ha!
Besides, He made the colors of the world.
Sid: You know what I really enjoy?
I understand you like to pray a lot.
For instance, I used to tell you on the telephone
"Pray for the television show
as to what Jesus would want you to do."
And you said to me "I did, but He hasn't answered me yet."
Until this morning. This morning, what did He tell you?
Jordan: Well, He said that He wanted me to pray for everybody that was sick.
Sid: And do you believe that everyone that is sick
is going to be healed?
Jordan: Yes.
Sid: I do too. I do too. Do you?
Get ready. We'll be right back after this word.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Jordan and Michelle Cook.
Jordan has a gift from God.

She can paint like an adult, but more than an adult,
because she uses the most extraordinary tools sometimes:
a toothbrush, a leaf.

This is certainly not something you learn in school.

Jordan: One time I used my own hair.

Sid: Really? You like to be really creative, don't you?

Jordan: Yeah.

Sid: Tell me something. This is such an unusual painting.

Tell me the story behind this painting called "The Keyboard", would you, Michelle?

Michelle: Sure. Jordan, when she was 6 years old,
was praying, and God told her to paint a piano,
a keyboard, for Kim Clement, which she did.

I watch Jordan struggle for hours mixing paint.

She just kept saying "I can't get the paint right.

It has to be pearl. It has to look like pearls."

Sid: By the way, did you copy a piano?

Do you have a piano in your house and you...

Jordan: Yes, I'm trying to learn the piano too.

Sid: Ok. That's so beautiful.

So, it took her a long time with this?

Michelle: This picture took her longer than any picture I've ever seen her paint.

She spent hours on it.

The Lord told her it was a keyboard of nine.

Jordan: Later I found out there's only eight keys.

Sid: So why would it be a keyboard of nine?

Jordan: A note from heaven.

Sid: That is... Did you hear that?

Normally you have eight.

Jesus told her to do a keyboard of nine.

A note from heaven.

This was done for Kim Clement, the prophet.

What did he think of this?

Jordan: He thought that it was really, really pretty,
and he liked it.

Michelle: He said "A keyboard of nine?"

I know exactly what that means."

Sid: Really?

Michelle: Yeah. I said "Can you tell us?"

Sid: I don't even know a keyboard has eight, let alone...

Michelle: I didn't either. I said "Can you tell us a little bit?"

He said scientifically, there are only a number of sounds that can be made, but that there are special circumstances,
I guess playing different scales or something,
that it would be a keyboard of nine.

I don't understand all the musical implications,
but he knew exactly what that meant.

He said he'd had visions since he was a very young man about having notes that are not worldly, not of this world.

Sid: I believe that true psalmists from God get the music from heaven, so obviously, as you said, Jordan, it's music from heaven.

Now this is a very special painting.
You call it "The Yeshua Tree."
Why do you call it "The Yeshua Tree"?
Jordan: Well, it's because it's the Gentiles and the Jews coming together.
The 'Y' is for Yeshua, which is Jesus.
Sid: Can you see that? That is a 'Y', Yeshua.
Michelle, she's had a burden for the Jews and the Arabs for a long time. Where did this burden come from.
Michelle: It had to come from God.
She's had it since she was too little to understand it.
Sid: Do you want to see peace between Jews and Arabs?
Jordan: Very much, yes.
Sid: Do you pray for that?
Jordan: Often.
Sid: I think that's one reason you did "The Yeshua Tree", because there isn't peace until each receive Yeshua as Messiah.
You've got so many other paintings. Have you got a painting inside of you that you haven't done yet?
Jordan: I have a whole bunch of them, yeah.
Sid: Could you tell me one that you have inside of you that you haven't painted yet?
Jordan: Well, I don't know. God's going to surprise me.
Sid: Ok.
Michelle: You have one of Jesus' feet you started,
of Him walking towards you.
Jordan: That one is another picture that, I don't think I brought, but it's my feet running on the beach.
Sid: What do you think God has for you in the future,
as far as what you're going to do when you grow up?
Jordan: That's another one I don't know,
because, well, He's going to surprise me.
I can't judge what happens next.
Sid: Well speaking of surprises,
I want you to hold up my favorite painting of your mom.
It's called "Worship". Literally, the painting came,
and then the healing came, Michelle.
You have to tell me,
when she came on her birthday and said to you that Jesus came and said "Done", what did you think?
Michelle: It was a lot to take in.
When she first told me the story,
I hate to say it, I almost doubted it at first.
I thought she's just excited, or whatever.
But, she continued to explain to me
the He was leaned over and writing on this certain table.
I just stopped, because, she didn't know,
but in the nighttime sometimes when I hear something special from God, or I think about something really personal that I want to write down,
I use that exact spot, and I lean over with a pen I keep there, and I write it.
I knew that that was part of the story
so that I would understand it really happened.
I was so shocked. I'd been waiting for healing for so many years, and finally it came and there's no pomp or circumstance or anything,

it just happened without having a special feeling.
It just sort of snuck in there. I was just overwhelmed.
Excited, I couldn't wait to get to the doctor.

Sid: Were you sure you were healed, or did you hope?
Between you and me.

Michelle: Well honestly...

Sid: I know Jordan knew, but between you and me?

Michelle: I was skeptical,
and I really felt bad about being skeptical.

I really had to check my heart and say to God
"I'm so sorry. I thought I had more faith than that.
I shouldn't be surprised."

That's part of His name, God The Healer, Jehovah Rapha.

Sid: You know what? The word rapha in the Hebrew means even more than "healed". It means "The Restorer."

That's what God wants to do,
He wants to be Jehovah Rapha, in Yeshua's name.
He wants to restore whatever's damaged.

Jordan, will you look in the camera and pray for people to be healed, just like Jesus told you to?

Jordan: In Jesus' name,
I pray that everyone who has any sort of illness,
or has something wrong with their bones
or anything like that, please have God heal them.
This very instant.
There's someone being healed of breast cancer right now.
I can feel it.

Sid: That is wonderful! Anything else?

Jordan: I also heard God say that there were 53 people being healed of just any kind of cancer.
And also, a person named Jack with autism.

Sid: I feel the sweetness and purity of a young child praying for you.
Do you remember what Jesus said about Jordan's mother?
Done.

On the back of the painting you're going to be ordering,
by Jordan, there's a scripture.

Let me read this scripture to you.

John 16:23. "I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, that My Father will grant you whatever..."

That's pretty inclusive... "whatever you ask in My name."
My Father will grant you whatever you ask.

And what you're really crying out to God for is peace.

Maybe not with your mouth, but with your heart you're crying "Peace! I want peace!"

And there is no peace except in the Czar Shalom,
the Son Of Peace, Yeshua Hamashia Tsidkenu, Jesus The Messiah, our righteousness.

If you'll tell God you're sorry for the mistakes you've made, ask for His power to do better, believe that the blood of Jesus washed away all of your sins,
and that you're clean, forgiven.

First day of the rest of your life.

Then ask Jesus to come and live inside of you and be your Lord. Just say

"Jesus, I make You my Lord. Live inside of me.
I love You, God. I want to know You." Amen.
