

On It's Supernatural:

*Ron Pettey died during an operation and went to heaven.
While in heaven, he heard people on earth
praying for his recovery.
He saw the angel who keeps the book of life,
and he received a special message from another angel about his son.*

Do angels exist?

Are healing miracles real?

Is there life after death?

Can people get supernatural help from another dimension?

Has the future been written in advance?

Sid: Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural.

My next guest died on the operating table,
went to heaven, and came back,
but with a serious problem.

He had total amnesia.

Well, God did a miracle,

and he doesn't have amnesia today,

but he does have a problem with his short term memory.

You may say "Well Sid, why are you going to interview him?"

Because he came back with another gift.

He has the gift of x-ray vision.

He can look inside of someone,

know what's wrong with them, know what the problem is,

and literally see the problem corrected.

He can look into the room and he can see angels.

Sid Roth here with Ron and Glenda Pettey.

I tell you, I protest again. I know, I've done it often.

But, I protest. And I'm entitled, it's my show.

I protest. Ron, you have a gift to see in the invisible world.

You have a gift to see inside of people, to pray for them.

Last night, I asked you to look inside of me,

and you saw what was going on, and you prayed.

And I believe, and you believe, that I was healed.

You also can look in a room and see what's going on.

To me, there's no guesswork there. I like it that way.

I guess I have to have more faith than you.

Ron: There's no faith involved, it's a fact.

I don't understand it.

I never have understood it, I never will,

because it's God who's doing it.

You can't understand God.

Sid: Glenda, you said sometimes, when this gift first started,
he would say to you a room is very crowded.

What was going on when he said that?

Glenda: He just sees so many angels.

He sees everyone's guardian angel,

and even in this room now, as we are here in this studio,

he sees a very crowded room.

Sid: So if there are fifty people,

he could see a hundred people. Is that right?

Ron: That's correct.

Glenda: And I think he sees them

just as real as he's seeing you and I.

They're not shadowy or ethereal, they're just real.

It's amazing. I do not grasp how clearly he's seeing it.

Sid: Let me take you back.

Tell me a bit about his disease that he had.

Or, actually it isn't a disease. What is it?

Glenda: He had a head injury back in the Viet Nam War, on a Navy ship.

Years later, he continued to have headaches.

Then one year, the headaches were so increased that he was passing out from the pain.

So, we had CAT scans, we had second and third opinions,

and when they began to compare the CAT scans,

they found that spinal fluid was not draining.

Not draining enough, and it was very critical.

So, they put in a shunt. I say "they", the neurosurgeons, put in a shunt that drains spinal fluid.

Then, as time passed, the shunt had to have corrections.

It would malfunction. We went back in and out of the hospital with many emergencies.

And then, about three years into this,

the entire shunt had to be replaced.

It had developed an infection.

Well, in the replacement process,

they had, inadvertently and accidentally,

put the brand new tubing that would drain spinal fluid right into a massive blood clot that had not shown up on x-Ray.

Sid: So it wouldn't work.

Glenda: Would not work.

They would not really discover this for hours,

and even a couple of days later,

of what a critical mistake had been made.

On a Sunday morning, they rushed him back into surgery,

and that was the morning

that he truly died on the operating table.

Sid: Ron, when you died on the table, what memory do you have

of what happened when you left your body?

Ron: The memory was heaven.

I knew exactly where I was.

Sid: You mean you instantly left your body

and you were in heaven?

Ron: Instantly, yeah. There was no in-between.

It was instantly. And I knew where I was,

that was the amazing thing.

Sid: What were the first things that you saw?

Ron: Well, for one thing there was light everywhere.

I mean it was like walking into a well-lit auditorium.

Light everywhere. And I walked up to this table.

I'm calling it a table, because there's no better term.

I walked up to this table and asked the person,

"I'm ready to go in."

There was a big book on this table.

He looked through this book, and my name wasn't there.

Sid: Oh no!

Ron: Really. That's what I thought!
I said "Have I been deceived all these years?"
And it came about that I raised such a ruckus...
Now this is hard to believe,
a ruckus with an angel - in heaven!
Sid: Listen, I would've raised a ruckus too.
How about you? You would've raised a ruckus too.
He can't get into heaven. Would you like to find out why?
I know you do. Don't go away.
I tell you, his book, "Heaven Is Real",
the presence of God is so strong when I read this book.
It's one of these books you literally cannot put down.
People that are afraid of death, after they finish this book,
they no longer have fear of death.
People that have lost loved ones, after they read this book...
Ron and Glenda, what happened to you,
and what you, Ron, experienced in heaven,
takes away all worry about loved ones in heaven.
We'll be right back after this word,
and find out why Ron was not allowed into heaven.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Ron and Glenda Pettey.
Ron dies on the operating table. He's instantly in heaven.
There's a registration desk. An angel looks through the book.
His name is not there.

He causes, as he says, a ruckus.

I don't blame him. I would cause a ruckus too.

But Ron, there were people on earth praying for you.

Tell me about that.

Ron: There was a lot of, what I'm calling,
confusion in heaven.

I had it thought of as a quiet, serene, beautiful place,
and when I got there, it was a lot of noise,
like walking into a large auditorium.

A large auditorium and hearing everybody talk at one time.

And I didn't understand what it was.

The person behind this desk asked me...

Glenda: I think you asked him, "What is all this noise?"

Ron: Yeah, and this person behind the desk said "Don't you know?"

Ron: I said "No, I don't. Tell me what it is." These were all intercessory prayers coming up on my behalf.

Sid: So all the noise that you were hearing were people praying for you to not die.

Glenda: Right.

Ron: In disbelief, I said "You've got to be kidding me. I don't know this many people." The person behind the desk said "Would you like to hear one?" A prayer was drawn out. I was drawn to it, basically, and I heard every word that man was praying. And it was verified, because I think two Sundays before, they had started recording their messages, and it was all on tape.

Sid: So when you heard it, it was word-for-word? Actually, as I understand it from the book, you said the prayer, and then you listened to it? Is that what happened?

Glenda: Exactly. That's exactly what happened. So Mabry Cain, our friend, said "Well we prayed for you a lot of times. I don't remember a particular time." So Ron explained again, said the prayer, quoted him an exact phrase, which was a unique phrase, and then they found the tape, and it matched exactly.

Sid: You had so many wonderful experiences in heaven. One had to do with, you had a stillborn baby. Tell me about that.

Ron: I'll let... Ok. I'm sorry.

Glenda: Ron relives his testimony, his story, every time we're asked to share it. And that's a very difficult part. He heard children's voices, and one child's voice was drawn out above the others. He tried to walk near to this barrier, but he could not pass through. He could not see the children, he could hear them playing as if playing in water, a stream. They sounded very happy. But he immediately knew that voice drawn out was our son, Jason. And as you walked toward the wall, or the barrier...

Ron: This very large, authoritative angel stood in my way; put his hand over my face. It was a large hand, because it covered my entire face. He said "He's fine, he's taken care of. Now move back." And I did. I moved back to the table where my name wasn't in the book. I moved back to that table.

Sid: Glenda, the thing in his story... It's an overwhelming story, about the children in heaven.

Glenda: Right. The next scene Ron was aware of were many thousands of people walking in the same direction. It was a corridor of people. Ron looked ahead to see where they were going, and Jesus was there, seeming to receive them. The majority of the people were children, children of all sizes and ages, with adults sprinkled throughout the crowd. You also saw children carrying something in their hands. Ron: What these children were carrying were other children. What I saw was not other children, I saw a miniature adult in their hands; what these children would've become if they'd have not been aborted or stillborn. Sid: Ron, you made eye contact with a young man in heaven. Tell me about that. It was very significant. Ron: This young man, almost in a mischievous way, said "I made it, I made it, I made it. And you didn't." Glenda: As he was walking along in the crowd, you made eye contact. Ron: He walked up to the Lord. Now the Lord was there. He passed through the Lord into heaven. I just... The Bible just came alive, because it says the only way to enter into heaven is through Jesus Christ Himself. That's the only way. Sid: And what did the Lord tell you about this young man? Ron: He said... Glenda: Two words. Ron: Two words: "Remember this." I thought I was supposed to remember that young man, and I would never forget him. I still don't, to this day. Sid: But there was a reason that Jesus said that, and it's so amazing. Don't go away, we'll be right back after this word.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

When Jesus prayed that they all may be one, there were only two people groups: Jews and Gentiles. Denominations did not exist.

2,000 years later, His prayer is still yet to be fulfilled. God's purpose from the beginning was for all nations to become one in Yeshua - Messiah Jesus; to break down the middle wall of separation dividing Jew and Gentile, so that the world may believe that Yeshua is the Messiah and Lord over all. When Jewish spiritual DNA merges with the new covenant Christian DNA, there will be what Paul called "life from the dead." Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Ron and Glenda Pettey. Ron died on the operating table, went to heaven, and his experiences bring such comfort to people that never had comfort before, in reference to dying. It's a trip that everyone has to make, but there are a lot of questions about heaven. This book, "Heaven Is Real", will do exactly what the title says, it'll make heaven real. And so, Ron and Glenda. Ron was in heaven. He sees a young man. Jesus says to remember him. And then, many years later, you're at a Bible study Glenda, and what happened? Glenda: Several years later we were at a Bible study, and there were two couples that had to travel an hour away to leave this particular study. They were bringing a video they had experienced, and they were coming from another church. During the course of this, they asked us to pray for a young man in their church who was dying of kidney failure. So week to week, they said "Would you please pray for Scotty Henigan." Then a week came when they said "Well, we had Scotty's funeral this week. No need to pray for him anymore." They said it in such a joyful way, we all were taken aback. This is not good, but they seemed happy. They said "You should see the difference in his mother. She gave him to the Lord. Scotty was ready to go. He was a brilliant Christian to start with. At any rate, we want Caroline to come meet you, to come meet our group." Several weeks later, Caroline Henigan came. After the meeting, Ron went over to her and said "I don't know why I ask, but did you bring a picture of Scotty?" Caroline said "I don't normally carry a picture with me, but I went back into the house tonight to bring this." She reached down into a large bag and pulled out a framed 8x10 of Scotty, and showed Ron. The next thing I knew, Ron dropped to his knees in front of her, just collapsed, and said "That's the young man I saw entering heaven." You had no doubt whatsoever. It was him. The picture she pulled out was a recent picture of him. He did not look ill in this picture. In the picture, he is 21 years old, just as Ron saw him entering. And she was not surprised her son was in heaven, but it was such a comfort and a delight to know that someone witnessed it. Sid: That is such a wonderful story, to have it verify your experience in heaven. When you talk about the eyes of Jesus, I can't get enough of that. Will you tell me about the eyes of Jesus, Ron? Ron: The eyes of Jesus are so loving. You can't describe them, because in His eyes, you can see the future, and you can see the beginning. His eyes were totally magnified, uplifted. I don't know. His eyes were just...

They had everything, the present to the future.

Glenda: And you've often said they were like a dark, transparent blue.

Ron: Yeah.

Glenda: And something else you've seen.

In that moment that you made eye contact with Him, or He with you, you knew that He knew everything about you.

Ron: You didn't walk up to Jesus and try to hide things from Him, because it was almost like He knew, when you walked up to Him. He knew everything.

Glenda: He knew every detail of your life, and yet there was no judgment in his eyes, no condemnation.

Ron: No judgment, but love.

Glenda: Love, complete love.

Ron: Complete love.

Glenda: You also saw a sadness.

A joy, and a sadness in his eyes.

Ron: This is very unusual, because the sadness that I saw in the Lord's eyes were the people who were not accepting Him as their Lord and Savior.

Sid: The Bible says that God is pure love, so this is what you... This is logical to me.

But you know something that intrigues me immensely, and I said it at the beginning of the program, is when you came back, you had amnesia.

Then ten years later, the amnesia suddenly left.

You still have a problem with the memory, but it's like God uses the foolish things of this earth to confound man's wisdom.

I don't think God would trust you with the gift I'm about ready to mention if you didn't have these limitations you're walking through.

That's what I think anyway.

Ron: Hallelujah. I mean...

You're probably... You're right, because I don't think He could trust me, but because... I'm too...

Oh... I'm too innocent.

What other words can you say?

Sid: I understand. Tell me about Deuce.

Ron: Ok. Let Glenda tell you.

Glenda: Ok. Deuce was a little child we met when he was fourteen months old.

He was born without an immune system.

We connected with his family.

It was just a wonderful connection, so then Stephanie, the mom, would call us often, to just call for prayer.

Most of this was long distance on the phone

Either she was calling from her home twenty miles away, or from the medical center in a town two hours away.

So Stephanie would call.

One day she was at home, Deuce had spiked a high fever, and in mere minutes, they would need to take action.

They would need to get to an emergency room, probably Life Flight him back to the main hospital.

So she called, Ron was there by himself that day, and the phone call came.

He said "Now Stephanie, we can do this.
Let's just pray for Deuce.
Put your hand on his forehead, and let's just pray."
In moments, his fever left, he rested peacefully.
The next day, he had blood work done.
Prior to this he'd had two failed bone marrow transplants,
where his mother, Stephanie, was the donor.
He should've had his mother's blood type, but never had.
That next day when they tested the blood,
he had her blood type.
They tested it twice at one hospital, thinking it was a mistake.
Sid: So his blood type literally changed?
Glenda: It changed. It was one step in many,
a stream of miracles we've seen with this child's healing.
As I said, he was born without an immune system,
now he's nine years old,
and the doctors have declared him a normal child.
Sid: So it'd be almost like,
years ago they called it a child they put in a bubble,
because they were afraid of getting disease.
Glenda: That is exactly right. Right.
He'd lived most of his life in the hospital.
Sid: Ron, I am so intrigued by your gift of being able to see in the invisible world.
Did you see anything in this studio?
Ron: This studio is filled with angels.
Not just guardian angels,
but I'm calling it angels on assignment.
They're all over.
I can't understand it. I won't understand it.
It's just... Hallelujah!
Because I can act like a fool,
and these angels can take care of it.
Sid: Now when you look inside of someone,
like last night you looked inside of me,
do you actually see organs?
What types of things do you see?
Ron: I do. God has given me the gift of healing, and with this gift comes many numerous other things.
But this has progressed to where
I can see inside a person what is wrong.
People come to me for prayer many times,
and they'll give me all their, what's wrong with them,
and the Lord will highlight a certain spot on their body.
I'll just say "What about your liver?"
or "What about your stomach?"
and they came for a headache.
Because, they weren't going to tell me about their stomach or their...
Sid: You can see things wrong that are physical,
and God heals the person.
But God can see things that are spiritual.
Every sin inside of you is preventing you from experiencing the fullness of God.
If you will repent of your sins,
believe the blood of Jesus washed them away,
and ask Jesus to become real and live inside of you and be your Lord, He'll do it.
