Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here, welcome to my world where it is naturally supernatural.

Now my guest Michele Perry is considered by many one of the most joyful people on earth, you can hear her bubbling over right now.

But here is the deal, she was born without a left kidney, without a left hip, without a left leg, and a lot of people would end up spending their life feeling sorry for themselves, instead she is literally creating history, but I want to take you back to when you were a young girl of just seven years of age, you had an encounter with the Messiah, tell me about that.

Michele: I sure did Sid, I was about ready to be facing a very, very serious medical operation where I didn't know whether I would be alive at the end of it, and whether I would live to see another day afterwards, and I was really afraid and I was scared and I had heard some stories about Jesus and I wanted to find out if they were really true and so one night I was in my room, just a little girl in Florida, and I said, "Jesus if you are really real and you are really who that Book says you are, the stories say you are, I want to know you."

And instantaneously he was in my room and I saw him just like I see you.

Sid: Did he speak to you?

Michele: He sure did, he came over and he sat where I was on my bed and he looked into my eyes and his eyes are like oceans of liquid love, they are just the most beautiful, beautiful eyes you will ever see.

And I knew he saw every part of me and he loved me completely and he told me that if I followed him I would see whole groups of people in other places come to know his love and come to know who he was.

Sid: Now you had no idea what he was prophesying to you back then is literally coming to pass, but you started reading about a woman named Heidi Baker in Mozambique, and I mean I am looking at some of her accomplishments, this Heidi Baker, she has started eight thousand churches, she has seven thousand orphans, over one hundred people have been raised from the dead, I mean, and you found out the secret to her power, she received when she went to the Toronto Airport which is a church in Toronto, Canada, however Michele thought it was the airport in tornado, so when you, tell me, are you kidding me, you're not putting me on.

Michele: I am not putting you on at all.

Aid: Okay, all right.

Michele: someone handed me a magazine and read about this sweet little blond lady who had this amazing encounter with Jesus in the Toronto Airports, and for seven days I thought wow god, I knew you are not a respecter of airports, you could meet me in Heathrow, and I was on my way to India at that time, and so I said, "Oh you haven't told me to go to Toronto, you said go to India, but God I want everything they've got, I don't know who they are, but everything they are doing, I want to know you and meet you like that."

Sid: And so Michelle goes to the Toronto Airport, but I want you to get a little insight into a woman just like Michele, they both, in fact they both are with the same ministry, Iris Ministry, except Michele is in the Sudan now, but I want you to get insight into what happens when someone can be selfless and filled with the love and compassion of God, let's go to that roll-in.

Woman: I'm not complicated, I am not special, I just feel like God said love and stop and love, and he also told me that everything you do is holy unto him, so when I am holding, when I am holding a child it is holy, holy, holy. When I am under water in worship it is holy, holy, holy. When I am walking it is holy, holy, holy.

When I take another child whose parents have died that is holy, when I am sweeping the floor it is holy, when I am in a staff meeting it is holy, I believe that the western church has compartmentalized things, and the Lord says let me in to everything, everything we do is for him, so I don't just pray five hours a day, I pray every waking moment of the day, it is like breathing to me, praying and breathing are the same thing, so I say just abide in him and the more you abide in him and you feel his love and let him show you who you are, you are not an orphan, no one is an orphan, then you start feeling this fullness that comes from living inside his heart and you are just happy.

Sid: Well I have to tell you I am Jewish and the Gentile is to provoke the Jew to jealousy, and I will tell you, Michele, you and Heidi provoke me to jealousy, just briefly what happened to me on the floor of the Toronto Airport Church?

Michele: Well I got taken up into this room in heaven and it had this huge long banquet table in it, and around it were the poor of the earth the most broken and hurting from the hardest places including Sudan, and they were all very hungry and looking at me to feel them and I was a little nervous and I saw in this encounter Jesus walk in and put this huge plate of food in front of me, this platter, and he told me to eat, and I said well that would not be very polite, there are hungry people here.

He said, he said no you don't understand, eat. So eventually I took a piece of bread and I ate, and whatever I ate then instantly it was multiplied, and everybody around the table had it.

Because we can't give away what we don't have.

Until we know his love for ourselves

we don't have anything to give.

Sid: And so then the vision ended?

Michele: That particular one did.

Sid: But you were changed forever at that church, I understand you, I don't even know what that was about, I just got in the presence of God, I mean they called it the soaking prayer meeting, and I said at another prayer meeting I was soaking through boxes of Kleenex I was crying so much.

Sid: Listen, Jesus actually sits next to her on an airplane, don't go away we'll be right back after this word.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Michele Perry, and Michele you were in India, you worked with the lepers, you loved working with the lepers, how could you love working with the leper?

They smell, they don't have any money, their skin is falling off their body, how could you love this?

Michele: Because Jesus loves them, and when I would look into their eyes I would see his eyes looking back at me and it is his heart, it is his heart.

Sid: Okay so you figured God has called you to India, you wanted to go to the worst place on the face of this earth, that was your prayer wasn't it?

Michele: It sure was.

Sid: Okay, how did you find out he was really calling you to the Sudan?

Michele: Well I like to listen to him all day long because he knows a lot more about things than I do and it's a good thing to do, and I was buying my plane ticket online to move back to India and I heard very clearly,

"I am so happy beloved, I am so happy that you want to go to India, but can I send you to Sudan instead?"

I said, "Sudan, that's in Africa, that's not India, that's in Africa."

He said, "I know where Sudan is."

I'm glad he does, it's where I live now.

Sid: Tell me a little bit about Sudan;
are there a lot of orphans in Sudan?

Michele: Last count, there are over three million that are documented and it's a very, very precious...

Sid: Three million?

Michele: Three million.

Sid: And you wanted to go to the worst place on earth,
how bad is Sudan?

Michele: I was so excited, I had been praying for ten years, "God give me the worst place you can trust me with."

And in 2006 when I moved there I read an article right before I moved that it was ranked the number one worst failed state in the world, I felt like I got a promotion.

Sid: Now you don't have orphans anymore, you have children, they were orphans, but they are children.
How many children do you have right now?

Michele: At present one hundred and ten.

Sid: And what is your vision for these three million orphans in this country of yours?

Michele: We want to see a movement of love start, one life at a time, just know who they are in Jesus and know that we have a heavenly Father and they have a heavenly Father, so they are not orphans, they are beloved sons and daughters of destiny, of destiny and to see them know who they are in love and change the nation from the inside out.

Sid: Now you went there with very little money,
by yourself.

Michele: I did.

Sid: I mean are you nuts, are you musuga?

Michele: I had a lot of people say you crazy white woman, what do you think you are doing?

And I said well I think I am following Jesus
and I am showing up.

Sid: Now with your children were there ever times when you didn't have enough money to buy a meal and what did God do, give me one instance.

Michele: Absolutely, we had run out of food one time and I had actually gone to Uganda to get some more money from our bank account because we don't have banks where we are at present, and so it's an eight hour drive.

Sid: You are not even third world, you are tenth world.

Michele: Well it's coming up but slowly, slowly as we say, and so we had a visitor that was with us at the time, one of my friends, and she was there with our children and we had all been praying, I was praying in Uganda, she was praying there, God we don't have food, and just as, just as food ran out, they had eaten the last food in the house a truck that we did not solicit pulled into our compound and said we have been sent to give you food, are you Iris Ministries, are you Sudan Iris Ministries, Sudan here I come, here is food for you, so God provided.

Sid: And all your children were praying for the food.

Michele: Oh they were praying, they were so excited,
he could have heard them.

Sid: Tell me one of your children, tell me, paint me a picture of one of your children.

Michele: Susan, I found Susan at a meeting and she,
her mom has been alcoholic, and she has a younger sister and they had been living on the streets and when I found her she was actually living in a bar and was washing dishes to earn her keep.

Sid: How old?

Michele: Ten years old, ten years old and she was the picture of mourning and suffering, and rags, just in rags and no life in her eyes, and now, we were able to bring her in to live with us, and now she is helping show love to some of our younger children and she knows who she is and she is learning how loved and precious she is to Jesus.

Sid: Tell me about the time you got on an airplane and Jesus walked in that airplane, tell me about that.

Michele: Well I was coming back from a meeting in Toronto, the only time I have ever been and I said God I want a visitation in Toronto, I want to see you in Toronto, and I had some amazing encounters but it wasn't what my heart longed for, but on the airplane, on the airplane, not in the meeting, I saw Jesus walk in,
he had jeans and a tee shirt.

Sid: Were you sure it was him when you saw him?

Michele: Oh absolutely.

Sid: Now did he look like a real person or was he transparent?

Michele: He was translucent, I knew he wasn't there in physical, but I knew he was very there.

And I had one seat that was empty next to me and he came and he sat in it and I just was overwhelmed in his presence and I looked in his eyes and ah, this is so good,
and just enjoyed being in his presence.

Sid: Would you do me a favor, would you look in the camera and describe what his eyes looked like.

Michele: Oh his eyes are the most beautiful, beautiful things you will ever see, they are like mosaics that have every color all in one and they are filled with love, they are filled with love that sees every part of you and loves you completely, just amazing.

Sid: You think that is amazing, wait till you find out what Jesus did with her on that airplane, literally a hole developed in the top of the plane and I'm not going to give it away, we'll be right back after this word, we'll tell you the whole story.

We now return to, "It's Supernatural."

Hello, Sid Roth here with Michele Perry, and we are finding out that Michele went to the Toronto Airport church and she really had an encounter with the Lord, but it wasn't exactly what, as much as she really was looking for, so she gets on the plane, she say well that's,
I mean it was good but it wasn't what I was looking for and she gets on the plane and she see this man walking by her and there is a seat next to her and he sits down right next to her and this man happens to be Jesus.

What happened next?

Michele: Well I was enjoying the fact that Jesus was sitting next to me and I looked up and the ceiling of the plane had disappeared and I could see the atmosphere and I was, I was a bit freaked out by it.

Sid: Yeah plans have difficulty flying in the air with thee top missing.

Michele: I have seen that in the movies you know, but I looked around and nobody else seemed to be bothered and so I thought maybe it was just me and when I looked up I was xhooooooooooooooooooooo.

Vacuum suctioned up to heaven and Jesus and I we were in heaven and we were dancing on the crystal sea and it was just, ah it was so amazing.

Sid: they told me that when you were dancing with Jesus,
you were dancing on the crystal sea,
what was this crystal sea like?

Michele: Well it looks like crystal but it has light and different colors and like lightening coming through it and it was just so, ah it is really awesome, it is really cool.

Sid: And I understand when you danced with Jesus
you don't dance with just your one leg.

Michele: Oh heavens no, I have two legs in heaven,
that's reality.

Sid: So you actually probably like to spend more time in heaven than on earth.

Michele: My goal is to live there and visit here.

Sid: Michele, I have interviewed many people that have talked about a parts room in heaven, have you ever visited the parts room?

Michele: I sure have Sid.

Sid: Tell - describe what it looks like.

The parts room is body parts that are available for us on earth, so tell me what it looks like.

Michele: It's - honestly, it is a little bit strange, it is like a warehouse and you kind of have eyeballs blinking on a shelf and lungs breathing in a corner, and you have rows and rows of different packages and it is a little odd, but it is definitely cool okay, it is just out there. The first time I went, I have gone twice, the first time I went Jesus took me to one section and he pulled this suction sealed pack together of all the parts I was missing and it had my name on it and he called some angels over and he said take it to shipping so it's on it's way.

Sid: My gosh, so what happened the second time you were in the parts room?

Michele: Well I was with a friend of mine and we were praying and we both got taken up and she was talking to one of the angels that were there that apparently handled delivery and tracking, a tracking system, that's so nice. So I called over to her and I said hey honey find out about if they know about a package for Michele Perry, and so she did not know my precious encounter, I had not told her at that point, so she asked the angel and he said well it was here but it had been sent to shipping.

Sid: Did she know your story.

Michele: No, no, no, no, she didn't, and then I said, wow, it's been sent to shipping, so ask them where it is going. And she did, and it's coming to Africa.

Sid: So in this life, on this side of heaven, do you believe you are going to get a new hip, new leg, new kidney, and as a matter of fact the last time I talked with you which was a while ago, you had really pain in your back. Do you have a metal rod in there?

Michele: Two metal rods.

Sid: I see; are you getting a new spine, is that part of your package?

Michele: Absolutely, I am going to be 5'6".

Sid: You already know this?

Michele: Un-huh.

Sid: Is this hope or do you really believe this?

Michele: I really believe it.

Sid: Michele, I believe it too, I absolutely believe it, in fact we have a date on this television show when you bet your body parts.

Michele: Okay.

Sid: Tell me a bit about your children.

Michele: My children are...

Sid: I mean I watched Heidi Baker and the children just gravitate around her, do they do that with you?

Michele: Oh heavens yes, in fact I don't feel at home unless I've got five kids viving for my lap, and my kids are amazing, they have come from lots of different unthinkable hard circumstances, parents that have been murdered in front of them, mothers that have committed suicide in front of their children, the war and the poverty and the sickness and they are finding out who they are in Jesus and who he wants to be in them and how much they are loved and now we take them out on outreaches and healing meetings out into the bush and they are seeing the blind see and the deaf hear.

Sid: Really?

Michele: they are, they are, they are praying for people and they're getting healed.

Sid: Do you ever take them into a hospital to pray for people?

Michele: Yes.

Sid: Tell me about that.

Michele: Well we like taking them into the hospitals and if you want to see an argument break out on compound you can say, "Okay five of you, which five of you are going to come with me to the hospital." And they will all fight because they want to come. They want to pray for the sick and they want to see people experience very tangibly and practically the healing love of God, it is so fun.

Sid: Michele one can receive God's compassion through praying for it, but also there is a transfer, for instance the book we are offering, "Compelled by Love," by Heidi Baker, which is the organization that you are with, Iris Ministries, but how does someone really, really go to a tenth world country without money, without plans, without organization, without help, I mean how do you do this?

Michele: Well Sid, I think you look into the eyes of the one who is love, and you fall in love and you let him love you past the place of your fear and past the place of your hands, and love you until you become the face and expression of his love to those around you, then you will go anywhere because you are in love.

Sid: There are some people watching us right now that are just feeling so sorry for themselves, they don't have any room for anyone else, would you talk to them right now.

Michele: He loves you so much, he is more committed to you than you are committed to you, he is looking at you and his eyes of love are ready to envelope every part of you, he is not angry, he is not bad, in a bad mood, he is not mad, he just, he loves you, let him love you. It's really simple, it is really easy, it is just about falling in love and knowing that you, that you mean everything, you mean everything to him and you were worth dying for.

Sid: And he is worth living for so we get the whole equation together, so the question is, have you settled for religion, have you settled for tradition or have you settled for reality?

Reality is what you are hearing Michele and I talk about, this is normal, all this other stuff, that's all it is, is stuff. Nice stuff, bad stuff, in-between stuff, but just stuff.

It's time to experience the reality of God, what are you waiting for, there is nothing to compare to breathing the rarefied air of heaven, that's what we are doing right now on this set, you must tell God you are sorry for all the sins you have committed and you have committed many, and tell him you will turn from them but you need his power to turn and believe that Jesus died for your sins, died in our place, that's how much love he has for you, and your sins are washed away and you are righteous and then ask Jesus to come and live inside of you, become your Lord, become your Savior, start reading the Truth Book, you have read a lot of books, you have seen a lot of TV, and it is all fabrication, the real, the real thing the emmist, the truth, he is the way, the life and the truth.
