

Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest died on the operating table. She experienced excruciating pain constantly for 14 years. So when God offered her a choice, she did not want to return. Then she saw what would happen if she did not come back. I believe you are the main reason God sent her back. Next.

SID: Welcome, Holy Spirit. Make this show naturally supernatural. My guest, Joanne Moody, was raised Catholic. At 24, she married a man with addictions. She got divorced. Her health spiraled out of control. Her business and real estate crashed. She was a popular opera singer, but lost her voice and was left penniless. Death looked better than life. She cried out to God, "Why do you hate me?" Then God answered in a license plate. A license plate.

JOANNE: God's very creative. I suddenly faced a situation with my health where I thought, "How can I go on?" and I said, in a car, driving down the road, "If you were real, you would show me. You must really hate me." And all of a sudden, a car, a van, a white van swerved in front of my car and almost knocked my bumper off, and the license plate said DEUT 6:5. I worked as an exercise therapist for the Honolulu Medical Group, I lived in Hawaii, and I had a bottle of sleeping pills because when I divorced my husband, I couldn't sleep. I had so much stress with the finances and stuff, and they gave me... Because I was very, very healthy. I was a triathlete. Nobody would disparage giving me drugs. They gave me a whole bottle of sleeping pills. They said, "Take these. You need them."

JOANNE: So I did intend to take them. When I got home, I intended to take the whole bottle because I had had enough. And I sat in my living room looking at that bottle of pills and looking at that Bible somebody gave me. And for hours and hours, I debated heaven and hell, heaven and hell. I just knew it, and I decided... I could hardly breathe. I didn't know the presence of the Holy Spirit. I didn't know the presence of God. And I opened up that Bible and I had to look at the chapter index because I don't know the Bible at this point. And I see DEUT and I turned there and I turned to 6:5. Deuteronomy 6:5, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength." And I am telling you the power of Jesus, Yeshua, hit me, and I fell to my knees and I started to sob. And I say, "God, I have never lived like that. I have lived for myself my whole life. So if you will forgive me, I will love you that way if you just help me."

JOANNE: The power of God hit me, and I was transformed. Within a week, I had the Holy Spirit visit me in the middle of the night and knock me out of bed speaking in tongues. I didn't even know what that was. I thought I've lost my mind. I've gone to the dark side. I'm crazy.

SID: I'll tell you what, some good things started happening. A man by the name of Mike came into your life. You visited a church in California and you got a revelation. You did never were taught. Tell me about that.

JOANNE: I did not understand God is father. I'd never heard that. I'd never heard about the love of the Father before. And I visited a church in California. I met my wonderful Mike, who is my husband and the love of my life, but I visited this church and heard about the Father's love. And these pastors prayed over me and they said, "You are so performance driven. You have no idea who you are," and I had never heard this. It was revelation for me on what actually occurred when Jesus gave his life to restore me to a father who loved me and approved of me. I hadn't had that.

SID: And then it gets better. She marries Mike. She's happy. she's expecting her first child. Then the Hollywood script abruptly stopped. She was diagnosed with a rare nerve disorder. Bedridden most of the time. Then she found out she was believing lies about God, lies about herself. And so are most of us. Be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Joanne, in 1999, happily married, expecting a child, you gave birth to your son, but then things started happening. What happened?

JOANNE: I had a 91-hour non-progressive labor, which sounds impossible in America. My doctor was out of town. It was a series of events. They did not know... For the next five years, I would have multiple surgeries to correct what was unfathomable pain in my pelvis. So I had been a very radical athlete. After having my son, I could not sit or stand without this... It was like I was being knifed in my pelvis.

SID: Wow.

JOANNE: My nerves were crushed in my pelvis. My son had been in the birth canal for 91 hours and sitting on that. And I had very narrow nerve canals, which is a precondition, you wouldn't know, and my nerves were crushed in seven places on my left side and five on my right. It's incurable.

SID: Incurable.

JOANNE: It's incurable.

SID: And I understand there's a high percentage of people that have what you had that commit suicide.

JOANNE: Nearly 70%.

SID: You learn about a surgery in France.

JOANNE: Yes.

SID: So you go. What happened?

JOANNE: The surgery that they did, when they did it, they had nicked an artery. And so when I got back to my hotel room, I mean, my hospital room, I was bleeding from the back, but no nurses would come. They had great disdain for American patients. There were two Americans there. They wouldn't check, they wouldn't check, and I started to go unconscious. And my sisters were in the room. Our French interpreter was back at the hotel with food poisoning, but she came bursting into the hospital room, yelling, "God told me to come here." At this point in time, I have two sisters who don't believe. And this, I did not know that my interpreter was a believer. She said she was throwing up in the toilet and God told her to run over there and I needed her.

JOANNE: I went under, unconscious, when she came. She ended up calling the surgeon. He came down. They rushed me to emergency, and I completely died on the operating table. And I suddenly left my body. And all of a sudden I feel and I sense the glory, the weightiness, the kabod of God and it comes in and I think, "Oh, I have to duck. He's so holy." And his presence goes, whew, and he said, "I've seen your suffering child and I know full well your pain, and you can go with me now or you can stay. For the prayers, the saints have given you a choice." And I was in shock because I couldn't believe that... I had no theology for that. I didn't understand prayers of the saints could do anything. God is God. He makes a decision. And then he said it again. He said the same thing. Only this time, he added, "Because there is much work for you to do." And I thought, "Oh, whoa, I'm not going to do that because look at that train..."

SID: I like it where I am now.

JOANNE: I'm not going down there to that again. No thank you. And all of a sudden, my son was in front of me. Barely six years old, blonde hair, blue eyes, big old cherub kid. He's so cute. And he's in front of me, and my husband is in a distance behind him. And in split second, I knew if I went to be with the Father that my son would never know Jesus. And my husband, from so much trauma and so much pain, would be immobilized. And he started to tell me things that were very personal that I don't share, and then I felt the descent, going into my body. And the moment I reached my body, he told me that it would be an impact unlike I'd ever experienced. And it was like being hit by a train. I felt an impact, boom, and it felt like bazillions of shards of glass all over me. And then it ended, and then I was in hell again in that operating room.

JOANNE: And I felt a needle go into my spine. And then I went black. And over the next three days, I would have two more surgeries. It would take me a month to get home. Eight months in bed.

SID: 2013 arrives and there was a breakthrough in the lies that you believed. And the most wonderful thing happened to her. She's at a meeting. Tell me about it.

JOANNE: I was in a cessations church, but I prayed all the time, but I never saw anyone healed. I just knew that God was a healer, but I never saw anyone so I just never stopped praying. I just prayed and prayed. I actually heard the audible voice of God, and I heard this, "Go to Voice of the Apostles. You'll be blessed." And I rode all the way to Florida with my elbows on the seat and on my knees. And when I got there, I felt like, "Oh my gosh, I've never felt this. I walked into that meeting, 7,000 people in Orlando, and I was like, "Oh, I found my tribe. The Holy Spirit is..." It was thick in there. And I thought, "What is this place?" and I had over a hundred people pray for me during the week. And I did not get healed. I got blasted by the Holy Spirit.

JOANNE: I went out for four hours, but I wasn't healed. But my friend who was Orthodox Catholic when I brought her to that event with me, got arches in her feet and she was going... She got healed. She had flat feet and I watched the Lord give her arches, and she was going up to give a testimony. So I was laying on my belly and I was filming her from the way back so that she could show her husband. And a man, a tall man with white hair comes towards me. And now, I've got a little tribe of people here who had been praying for me all week. That's how it goes at conferences. You just sort of attract people. He walks up to me and he goes, "What's your story?" I said, "14 and a half years of nerve damage, chronic pain, seven opiates, and I'm okay." And he goes, "Well, is it all rad if I pray for you?" I do this. I'm sarcastic anyway, but it's a gift from the Lord.

JOANNE: But I put my hands out, he put his hand on me, and the power of the Holy Spirit, knocked me back. And I fell out and I'm out on my back. And when I open my eyes, all of that tribe that has been trying to pray for me all week is around me. And they're like, "Oh my gosh, she must be healed. Did you see that? She must be healed." And I come up and I get on my knees and I go, "I'm not healed. I got the same pain," and now I'm really like... I was over it before, but now I am over it. And back comes the man here he comes again. I'm like, "No." And this time I'm so irritated, I don't even get up off the floor. That's how irritated. I stay on my knees, and I read his name tag. It says Richard H. I go, "Hello, Richard." He goes, "I need to pray for you," and I just looked at him and I said, "Look, I'm okay." And he does this, "No," and I'm thinking, "It just gets weirder and weirder here."

JOANNE: He goes, "God healed me. He healed my wife. He healed my son and now he's going to heal you," and then he looks at the group of people and they're all like, "Ooh man, get back Jack." And he goes, "All right, y'all, I'm going to sit on the end of this row," and then he looks at me with fire, Jesus eyes, and holds my face like this. And he goes, "Don't move your eyes from my eyes. Keep your eyes on my eyes." I'm thinking, "This is a freak show right now," but the Holy Spirit, when he touches me, the Holy Spirit goes right through me. And he says, "You have believed the lie of the enemy, that you are unworthy to be healed. You have believed that God is not pleased with you. You have believed that you are untrustworthy. You have believed these lies from the pit of hell. And I want you to open up your mouth right now. I want you to forgive your Father. I want you to say, 'I repent of these lies, Jesus. I break my agreement.'"

JOANNE: The power of agreement. I agreed with all these lies. And every time I would say, "I break the vow that I'm unworthy. I break the vow that I'm not trustworthy. I break the vow that God had abandoned me." I felt these things coming off me. It was like bricks. And then he goes, "And I tell you demons," and I was like, "Man, he's like a show." And then he started, he said, "Spirit of death, spirit of trauma, spirit of infirmity, get off," and all this weight came off me. And I felt like I was going to float up. It was so crazy. And he goes, "All right, then Michelle, I'm going to pray for her pain now. It's going to go. Now, Michelle, you put your hand right here on my pelvis." He goes, "I'm going to put one finger, this finger, I'm going to put one finger and it's going to go right here," and then he goes, "In the name of Jesus, I command all this pain to go," and it did. And then he goes, "Come on, glory. Glory, glory, glory."

JOANNE: And he goes, "All right, then now we got to get up and give God the glory," and they drag me up on the platform and I give testimony. That testimony's online. And I look like an emaciated drug addict because that's what I was. Sid, they gave an altar call that night and they tell me that over 400 people got healed of nerve damage that night. The power of the testimony, Spirit of Jesus. Dagger.

SID: What happened to all those addictions?

JOANNE: Oh, come on. This is the best story. Okay. I want to say, I am not advocating this. I am not telling you to go off your meds. I'm telling you what happened to me. I went back to my hotel room at 4:00 AM. By the time God lifted off me enough and all the stuff that happened, I-

SID: You can't just go off cold turkey from those.

JOANNE: Are you kidding me?

SID: Those are powerful drugs.

JOANNE: Just from Klonopin alone, you can't do that. My doctors always said to me, "If by some miracle you can be weened down in these drugs, you'll have to go into the hospital." Oxycontin was just one of my drugs. I went to get Oxycontin out of the bottle at 4:00 AM because it was such a habit. By clockwork, this is how I lived. And I hear the Holy Spirit say, "You don't need that anymore." He said, "None of it," but I just did that. Poured them all down. Flushed it. And I got on an airplane at 6:00 AM. And the guy next to me, I read his mail. I told him his... He had two daughters on the plane, that the glory of God... People got on the plane that were at that conference. And they said, "I saw it."

SID: What did you tell me was going on in your hands?

JOANNE: Oh. Well, Randy Clark prayed for me and Dr. Mike Hutchings also. Both of them are just amazing friends. And the moment that they prayed the fire of the Lord to come on my hands, I didn't really know what that was. I've talked to Randy and Mike about it over the years. They say that it's an anointing for healing.

SID: It was like a circle.

JOANNE: It comes across my hand like this on the bottom, and I feel the Lord's presence to heal people. But when I came in here, as everything started to get ready to be on the air, I started to feel the fire in a ring like this. And when it's fiery, like it is right now, I said to you...

SID: Hold it.

JOANNE: Yeah. Okay.

SID: When we come back, is it okay if she releases this fire over you where miracles happen? Is that all right?

SID: This is so important. Please listen to every word before I turn Joanne loose to pray because every time this happens, miracles erupt. There really is a heaven. There really is a hell. There really is a God. There really is a God that is pure love. There is a God that has a good plan for your life, and he wants you to have your own experience with him. I don't care what your background is. If you will say this prayer out loud with me and mean it to the best of your ability, you will have your own experience. I don't know what it is. Whatever you need, you will have. And you will say, "I don't believe in God, I know God. He's my best friend." That's what you'll say. So repeat this prayer out loud with me and mean to the best of your ability. You can't do more than that, but you can do that. Repeat out loud. Out loud. It's important. It's in the Bible. That's how I know about it. Out loud. Dear God...
