

Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural. My guest, John and Carol Arnott, of the Toronto outpouring. They saw this hard to believe four and a half million people from all over the world visit their church and hundreds of thousands made full commitments to Jesus. They're now warning many will miss the boat for the return of Jesus for very, very simple and mundane reasons. So sad, it's unnecessary. Next.

SID: The Holy Spirit is here. The glory of God is here. But I always want to extend the courtesy and say, "Holy Spirit, you are so welcome in this place. Take over. We want you to take control. We yield all control to you, Holy Spirit." Now my guests, John and Carol Arnott spent 35 years shepherding the Toronto Outpouring Revival. Few have had the privilege of being part of a major move of God's spirit, let alone lead it. But right at the beginning of the outpouring, Jesus gave Carol a foundational vision. Carol, tell me about that.

CAROL: Well Sid, it was amazing. We were going on an outreach to Hungary and they wouldn't let us delay it. We had to go and it was three weeks into the revival. I had never had a vision in my life. They prayed for us to go to Hungary and, bam. I'm down on the platform right beside the podium and I am instantly in this technicolor vision. Jesus comes walking up to me. We're in a meadow, beautiful meadow. He comes up and he hands me a bouquet of the lily of the valley.

We talked and laughed and then all of a sudden he said, "Carol, can I have the bouquet back?" I gave it back to Jesus and he went around and he gathered all different colors of flowers and he began to weave them into a wreath. In the wreath he placed the lily of the valley and then he put it on my head. Then out of nowhere came this long white wedding veil, that attached to the back of the wreath.

When that happened, instantly the scene changed. I'm walking down the street like this and kind of looking around thinking, "I don't know where I am," but I knew it was Jesus that I was walking with. There was people along the way and they were cheering. All of a sudden I looked down where we were walking and I went, "Oh, we're walking on the streets of gold. I'm in heaven. I married Jesus." It was just like... As soon as I said that, instantly we were in this massive banquet hall as far as the eye could see. Said I couldn't see to the end of it.

Anyway, the tables were all set, but I said, "Jesus, where is everybody? There's no one here." I failed to look behind me and said there were the most beautiful people standing behind me. I said, "Oh Jesus, who are these?" He said, "They are the broken in the herding and the outcast and the downtrodden, and the ones that have nothing. I have bidden them to come into my banquet feast." Then Jesus walked up to me and he said, "Carol, can I have the first dance?" I danced with Jesus.

Then coming out of that vision, John came up to me and he said, "Carol, what happened? Can you tell us?" I asked the Lord and he said, "Have your worship leader, Jeremy Sinott play Kevin Prosch's song, So Come. He did that and then he said, "I want you to tell my people that the banquet feast is almost prepared. It's almost ready. Tell them they are to be like the five wise virgins in Matthew 25." The 10 were all Christians. They all had lamps, they all had them lit. They were looking for the bride groom to come. They all slumbered and slept. What was the difference? The five wise had extra oil. It's the oil of intimacy.

The five wise had been spending time in intimate relationship with Jesus. The five foolish were busy working for Jesus. I got up and I shared that and I said, "Now is the time the Holy Spirit is here to pour out his presence for you to become vulnerable, to become transparent and just buy oil, spend time in his presence." We're coming into times where the soon coming of the Lord is very close and we want all to be five wise. Don't miss, do not miss. Don't be the foolish virgins that went to buy oil, but the door was shut and they couldn't get into the wedding feast.

SID: Carol, that triggers something that you literally received as a result of this vision, a rebuke from God over something.

JOHN: Yes.

SID: Tell us about that.

JOHN: I began reading that chapter in Matthew, Matthew 25:1-13. I must have read it 50 times, Sid. I didn't want to miss one thing that God was trying to say.

CAROL: Yeah. Yeah.

JOHN: I'm meditating on it. This is three years, maybe four years later. I'd been doing that for all that time. I came to, I think it's verse five, where he said, "While the bride groom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept." I stopped right there. I said, "Lord, I don't feel like I'm asleep."

CAROL: No.

JOHN: "I'm more wide awake than I've ever been in all my life. Revival is here. There's thousands coming, our church has packed every night. God is moving. They're getting saved and healed and blessed."

CAROL: Yeah.

JOHN: "I don't feel like I'm asleep. I'm more wide awake than I've ever been." Just like a flash, he spoke back to me and said, "You are asleep concerning the message of the soon return of the Lord Jesus Christ." That went into me like a spear. I'm like, "Oh." I'm trying to remember when was the last time I even preached about it.

CAROL: Yeah.

JOHN: It had been years, at least 10 years. I realized I got turned off to the message, because people setting dates and being wrong and writing books and being wrong and this and that. I just gave up and said, "Ah, come when you're ready to come. We'll get on with the kingdom and just win the lost and build a church and do what we're doing." I repented that day and began really picking up that message, realizing that we have to do two things at the same time. Plan out our lives in ministry, plan to live out your days, but on the other hand, perhaps today, he's to come.

SID: Carol, what is soaking?

CAROL: Soaking is just positioning yourself before the Lord, just to have an intimate time with him. It's not an intercession, it's not praying for your family, the world, problems. It is to have a relationship like the five wise virgins. They had intimacy with the Lord. They spent time and you see we're going to be his bride. If we don't have close communications and fellowship, how are we going to be the bride of Christ? Soaking is positioning yourself. Either, I like to lie on the floor with a pillow behind my head and worship music on, that I can just love him.

SID: What you're doing is you're accomplishing something, is what I'm hearing her say. By just showing reverence and awe and respect before God. You are developing a higher level of intimacy than giving God your laundry list every day.

CAROL: Exactly.

SID: That's what I'm hearing.

CAROL: That's it.

JOHN: That's it.

CAROL: That's it, Sid.

SID: Now, John, you talk about living prophecies.

JOHN: Yeah.

SID: Tell us what you mean by that.

JOHN: Well, I asked the question to myself initially, What's the difference of me reading the prophetic words from Matthew 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21? What's the difference of me reading them versus someone who read them a thousand years ago? Because the scriptures are all written in such a way that every generation was led to believe that the Lord could return in their lifetime. But the difference today is, that we have scriptures fulfilled that are like time stamps.

The first one is the fact that Israel will be a nation again. We can read those prophecies in Ezekiel chapter 36 and 37 and others in Isaiah about Israel will become a nation one day. Many people gave up on that. Many theologians said, "Oh, the church has replaced all that. Israel is of no significance." That is total nonsense, because when Gabriel came to Mary and told her that she's going to have a son, she said he will be on the throne of David and he'll rule over the sons of Jacob. This is a direct prophesy. That is going to happen one day very soon.

But anyway, we start seeing these fulfilled. Israel became a nation on May the 14th, 1948. I was a little boy, seven years old. I didn't really know what was going on. But then by the time 1967 came along, the Six Day War happened in Israel. I was in Bible school and I was glued to the TV and then the war is over in six days.

SID: I know.

JOHN: I mean, this is unheard of, but they took all their territories and...

SID: That's equivalent to what we read about in the Bible, just as miraculous, before our eyes.

JOHN: Oh, it's miraculous.

SID: I know.

JOHN: Before our eyes.

SID: Mm-hmm.

JOHN: See that wasn't true a thousand years ago, but that fulfilled a prophetic word from Jesus in Luke 21, that Jerusalem will be occupied by the Gentiles and by the nations until the times of the Gentiles is fulfilled. There's a phasing in of Israel and a phasing out of nations controlling things.

SID: Tell me one misconception that the devil has planted for the last days besides Israel, which is a major one.

JOHN: We see a great falling away today. We see deception on every hand, like people saying there is no hell. People are saying sin doesn't matter.

CAROL: Yeah.

JOHN: People are saying God doesn't mind if I color outside the line.

SID: It's people repenting of repenting.

JOHN: Yeah.

CAROL: Yeah, yeah.

JOHN: But no, God has not changed. His standard is the same. He's a holy God. He's called us to read and believe the scriptures.

SID: I'll tell you what, when we return, Carol will tell you about the glory cloud, whirlwind dream, and the unexpected fear that is coming. But even more important be in expectation for an explosion of the greatest global glorious glory that's hit this studio yet. Be right back.

JOHN: Well, this is so great.

CAROL: It is

JOHN: You guys are so enthusiastic and all of you at home, we're just celebrating the goodness of God right here, aren't we, Carol?

CAROL: We are.

JOHN: Now, Carol, a few years ago, had a most amazing dream and then a prophetic word that followed. Why don't you share that with us?

CAROL: I was standing at the front of our church and I'm worshipping away, having a great time with the Lord, and all of a sudden I'm in a glory cloud and I'm going up. It was like a whirlwind, going up, going up, and I'm in the center looking up and I said, "Lord, are we going through the roof?" Got up to the roof and then he came. He started to take me back down again. I landed on my feet and whoa, I don't know what happened, but either something came off of me and then something came on me.

I went and I grabbed the mic and I started saying to the people, "People there is going to come a new cloud of his glory. In that glory is the fear of the Lord, but it's based on the father's love. It's not an outward fear. It is an inward circumcision of the heart." I said, "Oh my gosh, the glory cloud is starting to come. Whoa, it's starting to come down. I can see it. Whoa." I said to the people, "People, the glory cloud is coming. I fear for your lives. If you have secret sin in your life, if you have been taking well the mercy and grace of the Lord Jesus for granted and using it for your own ways and saying, 'Oh, God will forgive me. He's so incredibly forgiving.' Wow.

I tell you to come to the front, that mercy seat of God is open. Those of you that do not want to repent, please run from this building, because I do not know what is going to happen." People just started to scatter. They just, some went out and some ran to the front and it was just this back and forth. The Lord is saying to us, He, like the five wise virgins, now is the time to be intimate. Do not let the things of this world, the busyness, all the good things that we do, take away our intimacy with him because it is just too precious. We don't have time. We don't know the time. But there's so many things prophetically that are lining up now, that we are in the season. The Bible says we will not know the day or the hour, but we will know the season of his coming.

I encourage you at home, you in the audience, carve out even if it's only starting with 15 minutes a day to begin to soak in his presence, to have an intimate one on one love relationship with Jesus. If you can't begin to pray, "Lord Jesus granted me a hunger, grant in me a thirst, I want to be so in love with you, Jesus. Lord, help me draw me." When you start doing it every day faithfully, you won't believe how intimate it will become with you and your bride groom king.

JOHN: If you know that you need Jesus, admit it to yourself. Say, "Yeah, that's me. Yes, I got hurt. Yes, I got angry. Yeah. I wandered away from him. I know better," then you need to come on back home.

CAROL: Yes you do.

JOHN: I want to give you a chance to do that right now. It begins in your heart. Say, "Lord Jesus."

CAROL: Lord Jesus,

JOHN: I need you.

CAROL: I need you.

JOHN: I want you.

CAROL: I want you.

JOHN: I want to give myself totally to you.

CAROL: I want to give myself totally to you.

JOHN: I believe you died on the cross for me.

CAROL: I believe you died on the cross for me.

JOHN: I believe he rose from the debt for me.

CAROL: I believe you rose from the dead for me.

JOHN: You paid the debt of my sin.

CAROL: You paid the debt of my sin.

JOHN: With your perfect life.

CAROL: With your perfect life.

JOHN: Come into my heart right now.

CAROL: Come into my heart right now.

JOHN: Wash me clean.

CAROL: Wash me clean.

JOHN: And give me a love for you.

CAROL: Give me a love for you.

JOHN: Give me a love for the word of God, the Bible.

CAROL: Give me a love for the word of God, the Bible.

JOHN: Help me.

CAROL: And help me.

JOHN: To really get the message of the love of God into my heart.

CAROL: And help me get the message of the love of God into my heart.

JOHN: I really want that, Lord. There's always more. Will you tell the person next to you there's always more for you? There are no toxic levels of the Holy Spirit.

CAROL: More.

JOHN: We want to pray that he will come on all of us today, and I want you to just get in touch with that deep desire in your heart. Oh, Lord.

CAROL: Yes, Holy Spirit.

JOHN: I want more of you.

CAROL: Wow.

JOHN: We want that glory cloud to descend on this wonderful ministry.

SID: We're out of time, but go right now to sidroth.org/revival to watch the full extended show with John and Carol Arnott, in this extended segment. They will pray for their gift of the release of miracles and move in very precise words of knowledge. Our studio audience received so many miracles. Get ready to receive your own miracle, as the same glory that was in our studio, it's going to come right out of your computer or television set. You watch.

CAROL: It's your fire, Lord.

JOHN: In the mighty name of Jesus.
