

Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural. From a prophetic word, my guest began to yield more and more to God. Then she reached a boiling point when the fire of God, which felt like a thousand volts of electricity, moved throughout her entire body. This lasted for six weeks, and now when she shares this experience, the same or even greater fire comes on many viewers. Next.

SID: Welcome to our most important guest, the Holy Spirit.

HAYLEY: Yeah, thanks.

SID: Welcome, Holy Spirit. Without you, we're nothing. No false humility. We know that. We know that. But with you, nothing, nothing is impossible. Haley Braun is a senior overseer for the Bethel School of Ministry. She was at a meeting just in 2019. A prophet was speaking and he said, just out of the blue... I mean, she even snuck into the meeting late. No one knew she was there, "Hey Braun, where are you, prophet?" Give us a brief history involving... You wouldn't know it when you talk to her now. The fear of man.

HAYLEY: Yeah. So, leading up to that moment, I had been in ministry for nearly 10 years and had been serving in our school of ministry. But the further I got into ministry, the more the fear of man became prominent in my life. And the more the Lord would put favor on my life, the more afraid I'd become. And so I was gripped with the fear of man every time. Before I spoke, when I spoke, and afterwards, just so tormented.

SID: That's the operative word. Tormented. The enemy torments. It's not God, if you're being tormented. Go ahead.

HAYLEY: That's so right. And so because of this operating and full-time ministry, I was just burnt out. My body had given way. I was in full viral fatigue. I had shingles and mono at the same time. We had really come out of the hardest season of my life facing really tough doctor reports for some of our family members. And I had snuck into that meeting, just... I'd come late just-

SID: By the way, where is that accent?

HAYLEY: South African.

SID: Okay, it's a nice accent.

HAYLEY: Thank you so much. Yeah. So, I had snuck into that meeting. I remember I had a beanie on my head. My hair was not washed. I have three children. And in that moment, Michael called my name out and he said, "Haley Braun, where are you, prophet?" And I remember thinking, "Oh-oh." "Come onto the stage."

He says, "Are you willing to say things that would offend people if God is saying them?" And if I'm 100% honest on the inside of me, I thought, "You know what? Everything in me wants to say yes," but with this fear of man in my life, it was like a constant tug of war to say yes to the Lord. And I remember walking on stage thinking, "God, I want to say yes to you, but I actually can't. I don't know how to say yes to that." And then He said, "There's a rumble inside of you that has to be released and the fear of man has to die."

SID: There are a lot of people with that condition, fear of man.

HAYLEY: I thought initially it was maybe insecurity or fear of rejection. But when he called it out, the truth was all the insecurity and the fear of rejection was the fear of man in me, afraid of making people unhappy, trying to keep people happy and God happy at the same time. I yield to the grace on that word. And as I was yielding to the grace and I said, "Lord, the miracle will be if I get off the floor and the fear of man is not in my life because I know that for 29 years I've been battling this thing. In my own strength, I've been trying my best, but I actually can't win this one on my own."

And I said, "God, I yield to the Word." And in that moment, the Lord responded back to me and he said, "Haley, well then I'm going to need your shield. I'm going to need you to give me the shield of the fear of man." And I said, "Well, Lord, if I give you that, then Lord will you be my shield?" And that's when the Lord said to me, "Haley, I will be your shield." And for the next three months... You get off the floor in an exchange like that, hoping that you'd get off the floor feeling completely free.

I think a lot of us, that moment we want to be free. But I knew something had changed in the moment. I knew I'd received a seed. And if I could water that seed, that gift that God had just given me, if I could lean into that grace, that I knew something could happen, that God could do something. And so for the next three months, I spent the next three months daily saying, "God, I give you my shield of the fear of man."

SID: Most people would've given up. They'd say, "Well, God said it. It didn't happen. That means it's not going to happen." Why did you hang on like that?

HAYLEY: Because I want God more than anything else. I'm going to get emotional, I know, in this... I'm just really sensitive to the Lord. But I remember when I was four years old, this sounds so bizarre, but a little four year old, it made sense to me. I'd heard the story of Mary, and Mary had said to the Lord that she would carry Jesus, the coming Messiah. And then this attack of the fear of man came on my life. But the persistence was really just-

SID: It was to stop you from fulfilling your destiny. That was the purpose. Now, three months later, I actually have the date here, January 14th, 2020. It happened. Tell me about it.

HAYLEY: Well, three months of telling, "God, I exchanged my shield." I had a wild day that day. It was a day full of exchanging my shield of the fear of man for God being my shield. It was literally jam packed. I remember saying it multiple times that day. And I came into our room, our school of ministry room. I was part of our second year School of Supernatural Ministry, leading that.

And we had just seen a wild outpouring of the Holy Spirit in a training, a home group leader's training. We had just had a normal training. And I had prayed that we lived before one thing, the empty cross and the empty tomb. And something exploded in that room that day. And I ran across into our main auditorium where our whole school was gathered. And I thought I'd make this declaration because something had happened. God had rested on it.

And I made the declaration, and honestly nothing happened. And I was like, "Well, I did my best. I gave Him my best shot." And we went into a break and our students were looking at different artifacts from revivals. Bill Johnson had just been in teaching about revival history. And I walked off the stage thinking I was done with my day. And all of a sudden, I just saw a picture flash before my eyes of me beginning to lay hands on our students, actually touch them, grab them by their faces.

And I knew in that instant that I couldn't resist the Lord. And so as I stepped forward to pray for the first student, just standing in the room, the power of God hit my body. And it was like a thousand volts of electricity started flowing through my body. And the fire of God began to hit my shoulders and my arms. And as I did that, that same power shot through my hands and started touching people. And it was like the Holy Spirit overtook me.

Within a few minutes, I lost all sense of where I was, of what I was doing. And about three hours later I came to, I'd sweat through all of my clothing. I thought only drummers could sweat through their clothing, but I had sweat through all of my clothing because of the fire that was on me. And I had to be carried out into... I had to be driven home, carried out of the room. And that lifted slightly for a couple hours until I started sharing the story again with my husband. And then this went on for six weeks as the-

SID: Six weeks?

HAYLEY: Six weeks.

SID: Wait, would it ebb and flow or was it just strong for six weeks?

HAYLEY: It would ebb and flow, but I could always feel the vibration of the spirit in my blood. And it was like the fear of man was gone. I couldn't even care honestly about the opinions of people in that moment because God was so present with me.

SID: You were set free. And when we return, I want to know about the lives of people that have been changed by Haley's baptism of fire. From deliverance of the fear of man to genuine miracles. Be right back.

SID: Haley, after this baptism of fire, and that was some experience that you had. Tell me about the release of the glory and what happened.

HAYLEY: Yeah, well firstly, in the midst of this encounter, I couldn't respond or talk about what was happening. And I would have students from our school of ministry come up to me and tell me, "I don't know what happened, but in this moment, the fear of man's off my life." Or, "In this moment, I got set free from insecurity." And I couldn't even respond or tell them what was happening.

And then post this encounter, as I've gone around and shared this story, my own mother has personally had a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit. We're part of a Methodist church, and God is moving mightily in our church because of this baptism she's received. And then just recently, I was traveling in South Africa. I was visiting home, and I was ministering at a church. And the pastor's seven-year-old son, he walked around the room as I was praying and laying hands on people, and they were falling out and obviously receiving powerful encounters with the Lord.

And this little boy, he told his dad, he said, "Dad, I want to do that. I want to move like that with God." And his father, a week later took him to a Monday night encounter service and his father said he felt a little tug on his jacket halfway through and his seven-year-old said, "Dad, I want to pray for the people." And his son started moving around the room in the same way. And people started encountering God as this little seven-year-old boy started praying for people and then he started prophesying and accurately prophesying over people.

SID: Had he prophesied previously?

HAYLEY: Not like that. The father said he had never ministered like that or prophesied corporately the way that he was, and that it's been such a marked difference in his life. And then personally, in my encounter, my daughter has a disability and she isn't verbal, and I would lie on the floor. And the song that I would sing was a song about the holiness of God. And my daughter, at two and a half, who previously had not said a word before, in this encounter, she started saying the word holy, and started speaking for the first time. And her first word that came out of her mouth was, "Holy."

SID: Well, as a mother, you couldn't ask for anything better.

HAYLEY: Nothing greater.

SID: Well, Haley, we know many believers will cry out, "God, show me your glory. God send your fire."

HAYLEY: Yes.

SID: Is there something we can do to perhaps speed it up?

HAYLEY: That's a great question. I had a throne room encounter with the Lord in the middle of the San Francisco airport, saw these golden balls filled with oil, and they were tipping and pouring out. And the Lord said to me, "Haley, many are crying out for fire, but I want to send the oil." And I said, "Lord, why oil? We want the fire." And the Lord said, "Because I want to sustain the fire. What I want to do, there's a third great awakening coming and I want to pour out my oil on the bride. I want to prepare the bride for a sustainable fire. I'm not looking for a moment of my glory to shine, but I want a move of my glory across the globe."

And I said, "Lord, then why oil?" And he said, "Because our church, our bride, needs to be prepared." And I started looking through the scriptures about oil and the story of Esther really stood out to me. She was bathed in oil for a year, and it was the removal of a previous season, the effects of the hardship of a previous season, that prepared her to come before the king. And I believe that is our invitation. And the oil, it's not a thing. The oil is the person of the Holy Spirit who wants to come and prepare us by his beauty, by his love, prepare us for an outpouring of his fire.

SID: I have a practical side. What can we do?

HAYLEY: It says in Revelation that the oil is the prayers of the saints. And I believe that this is a season to cast off the mundane and to cast off what we know, and to lean in to the new thing that God is doing. And I believe that prayer and ministry to the heart of God is actually practically what we need to do. I believe that he wants us to lean into the process right now and to begin to pray. Prayer displays faith. Faith in something great that is to come. And I believe the Son of Man is looking for a people of faith who will take God at His word and usher it in a new move.

SID: You know what? I'm reminded because Haley spoke about the book of Esther. I see Esther as a type of an end time church. And you know what Esther did? She, actually the gentile church, I see Esther as a type, even though she was Jewish, a type of the gentile church. And do you know Esther's assignment after she was bathed in that oil? Spare the Jewish people and a great revival happened to the land.

Haley, this is some... God's telling me and He's telling other people. He is saying that there is going to be such a move of the Holy Spirit among Jewish people in Israel, and we're the dispersed throughout the world. And just as in the first church, it was the Jew that took the banner, the mantle if you will, to the non-Jew. It's going to be the Jew, one more time, that is going to be on fire for Jesus.

And it's the job of the gentile church to pray for and lead that Jewish person to the Messiah. And very few gentiles believe that that's one of your major callings because when that Jew and that gentile join hand in hand, there'll be a release of the glory like the world has never seen.

HAYLEY: Amen.

SID: Now when we return, I want to release Haley to teach and impart the fire and the glory. It is totally transferable. Are you ready? I know you're ready. Be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

HAYLEY: Well, I have such a privilege today to share with you. I honestly and truthfully take this as the greatest honor to be able to share with the people of God. Those of you in the room and those of you that are watching, you're here because you're hungry. You're here because you want more of the Lord. And when I prayed about this time and I prayed about this invitation, the one thing the Lord said to me was he said, "Haley, tell my people that I am wooing them towards my heart. Tell them that I want to encounter them more than they want to encounter me. Tell them that I've made a way where there was no way. And I'm raising up the valleys and I'm bringing down the mountains. And every hindrance that has stood before you, my son, Yeshua, Jesus has made a way."

This beautiful Holy Spirit that we get to receive. The Holy Spirit and the Old Testament, He rested upon one for an assignment and a purpose. But in Joel 2 it says that, "I will pour out my spirit on all flesh, on men and women, on slave and on free." And this is who our king is. In Luke 11:13, right before verse 13, he's talking about, "Ask, seek and knock." Luke's talking about a persistence, a hunger, a desire. And that hunger is here today. That hunger is inside of you. That's why you are leaning into this moment because you long forgot.

And verse 13 says that, I'm going to paraphrase right now, but it says that if a normal child asks their father, just a regular father, if he asked him for a fish, you wouldn't give him a snake. And he asked him for an egg, he wouldn't give a scorpion. And so if our fathers, who are in the natural, in the flesh, wouldn't give us a bad thing, how much more would our Heavenly Father give us the Holy Spirit to those who ask? How much more would our Heavenly Father give us the gift of His Spirit to those who ask?

I've seen many people who think it takes special people to receive the Holy Spirit. It takes a certain kind of gifting. Many of us think that we have to be unique. I used to think that I'd have to be amazing and wonderful and perfect before God would use me. I thought when I became a leader, I would have no weakness. I would just be ready in every way and no challenge. But the truth is here I stand, a leader, a lover of the Lord, and I still need Him. I still have full dependence on Him. Do you know why? Because I'm a clay jar.

But you know what He does with clay jars? Not golden jars, not jars full of beautiful ornate detail, but little clay vessels, maybe a little cracked and broken, maybe with some history, maybe with some past, maybe with some fault. What He does with those vessels, who will yield to Him, He'll fill them with His glory. That's what He says. And the Lord longs to reveal His glory to a broken world.

Right now, you are in the audience or some of you watching, maybe you don't know a God like that. Maybe you don't know God in that way. Maybe you always thought God was a father with a clipboard, trying to mark whether you're good or bad, whether you got it wrong or right. Some stone figure, trying to figure out if you're good enough. That's not the father that I know.

I used to think that that tormenting voice that I had was a father trying to fix me. No, that is the accuser of the brethren. That is the enemy. That is the devil. And he wants to tell us that we're a failure. But you know what? When the blood of Jesus comes upon us, when Jesus comes into our life, we become a new creation. The old has gone and the new has come and we've become vessels to hold and host His glory.

I know that there are people watching today. You don't know a God like that. And I want to tell you, Jesus Christ, Yeshua. The Messiah is available for you today. And I want to tell you that when He comes into your life, He changes everything. His blood doesn't just fix you up, but it washes you white as snow and you become new. It actually says that the old you becomes crucified with Christ and resurrected anew, is a new life. A life lived for God. A life full of life in abundance. So, if that is you today, I want to invite you to pray this prayer with me.

Jesus, I come to you knowing I'm a sinner. Why don't you say that after me? I come to you knowing I'm a sinner, and I need your blood to wash me clean.

Audience: And I need your blood to wash me clean.
