

Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest was tormented nightly by demons. Even as a believer, for a year nothing could stop this relentless assault until one night he did something that triggered the glory of God and the demons left in terror. Want to know why? Next.

Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural!

Sid Roth: Welcome, Holy Spirit. This is totally your show. This is totally your platform. I yield completely to your promptings. William Wood was on drugs, it's hard to believe, William, at age 11. A full-blown alcoholic at 15. His belief system, atheism. He lived in and out of crack houses. Then it got worse. William, what happened at 20?

William Wood: Well, I overdosed on drugs while walking down the side of the road. I had been up for five solid days on crystal meth, without any sleep. And when I was overdosing, I actually fell into the highway and a car hit me, sideswiped me. And I probably slid, I don't know, 30 or 40 yards. And when I came back to, I was in a hospital room and there was a doctor standing over me and they're saying, "William, your kidneys have completely failed and your liver is failing. Matter of fact, if your liver fails, you'll die."

And because of where I lived, it was a community of only about 2,000 people, the hospital wasn't necessarily equipped to handle my situation. And so, they sent me to another hospital about two hours away. When I get there, they put me in ICU, put me on a kidney donor list. Now, keep in mind, I'm an atheist. I don't even believe in God. So, I wasn't in there praying for God to touch me, praying for God to heal me or anything like that. I was not crying out to Christ. And for two weeks I'm in this intensive care. And every night before I went to sleep, I would have this thought, "I hope I wake up to see the next day." That was the hope of my life at 20 years old. And this one night I had that-

Sid Roth: I have to ask you a question. Why were you an atheist? Being a Jew, it wasn't even in my realm of consciousness. Why were you an atheist?

William Wood: Well, it may be a little different than what you think. I grew up in Alabama and there was a church on every single corner, but yet, I never remember meeting a Christian.

Sid Roth: Huh.

William Wood: Never even remember hearing the name Jesus spoken from anybody. And so-

Sid Roth: Oh, I did, as curse words.

William Wood: Exactly. The only time I did hear the name God or anything like that will be in the context of a curse word. So, for me as a young boy, that proved to me that God wasn't real. I was like, "If God is real, then why doesn't His people live as if He's real?" And I believe now, this is the reason I have a teaching series that I have, and it's called Christian Atheist. I think there's a lot of Christian atheists out there. In other words, they believe God exists but live their life as if He isn't.

Audience: Yes.

William Wood: And that's exactly where a lot of people are.

Sid Roth: Okay, so you're laying in the hospital bed, you've gotten what appears to be a potential death sentence. Is that drawing you any closer to God?

William Wood: Well, like I said, the only thing I'm looking for is just to live another day. That's the only thing I'm reaching for is just, "How can I live another day?" Well, I had this thought, "I hope I wake up tomorrow." And sure enough, a bright light forms right in front of my hospital bed. Now keep in mind, I've been on drugs for years at this point. So, I was thinking, "I'm going back on another trip on acid or something like that, like a flashback." But this time, this visionary experience is different. It has an atmosphere to it, a presence to it. There was so much love coming from this light.

And so, I just begin to look at this light and I'm focusing on it. And as I'm focused on it, it gets bigger and bigger and bigger until it's the size of a person. And then a figure of a man begins to walk toward me through this light. And he steps into this room. He has a white gown on, he has brown hair, but I could not make out the features of his face because of the brightness of the light that's coming from his face.

And when he stands into the room, all my body begins to tremble like this, under this power. And he begins to walk to the foot of my bed, not saying anything to me. And he gets right to the edge of the bed and he turns like he's going to leave, but yet he sits down on the floor, he crosses his hands like he's waiting for something and within a few seconds he looks over to the right side of the room, and so, I look over and the wall opens up. And I'm seeing this as I see you, the wall opens up and a river of water begins to flow into the hospital room, right in front of where this man is sitting. And he sticks his hands in the water, he washes his arms like this. And an audible voice speaks to me and says, "The waters that you see will purify and cleanse you if you receive Jesus the Christ as Lord and Savior."

Sid Roth: That certainly wasn't a drug trip, that I can tell you.

William Wood: No, absolutely not.

Sid Roth: So, what did you do?

William Wood: Everything inside of me just responded with this, yes. And so, I scream out, "Yes." And as soon as I say that, everything in there disappears. The vision, whatever this is, it disappears. The power that was on my body, it goes inside of me. And I can literally feel my organs beginning to tremble with this power.

Well, it gets so intense, it knocks me out. I don't wake up until the next day about 12, 13 hours later. And when I wake up, the doctors are literally shaking me. They say, "William, wake up, wake up." And when I come to, they say, "We've been doing tests for 10 hours on you. Not only are your kidneys and liver better, but it's as if you've never done drugs before your whole life."

Sid Roth: That was definitely not a drug vision type of thing. That was God. So, what happened to all your addictions though?

William Wood: Well, at the time, I hadn't seen my dad in probably eight years at that time, a few times here and there. And I didn't have anybody else to turn to or to call, because when you live a life of drugs, you burn all the bridges in your life. And so, I called my father, he comes to get me. What I did not know at the time is that he got saved the month before, and he was an atheist.

And so when he picks me up, he begins the father-son conversation and he says, "You know what? When you get home, I help you get a job. I help you get a home, if you get off the drugs and everything." So, we get to his house, three days go by, four days go by, and I realize there's no withdrawals from the drugs. I had been in and out of rehab all throughout my teenage years, and guess what? Withdrawals will begin. I'll fall right back into drugs. This time there was no withdrawals whatsoever from the drugs.

Sid Roth: So, you get a new liver, a new kidney, a new life, you know that there's a God and you're drug-free. Now, that's the God that I serve. I'll tell you what, 3:00 AM every morning, demons come into your bedroom for a year. Most believers say, "Well, just tell them to go and roll the sheet back over your head." But you did everything you could do and you could not get free until you reached a certain point. What happened?

William Wood: Well, Sid, it was really a funny thing how the Lord showed me this because I stumbled into it and it was getting to that point after a year of going through this, where these demonic spirits would manifest in my home, sometimes they would come in as a black cloud, sometimes they would manifest in human form, and a paralysis would begin at the bottom of my feet and work all the way up to the top of my head to where I couldn't move. And so, I was getting to this point of anger, like a righteous anger toward the enemy, like, "Why am I continuing to tolerate this and why can't I find breakthrough in this?"

Well, this one night I felt like the Lord told me to not go to sleep, but to stay up and to wait until those demons would manifest and that he would show me what to do. Well, sure enough, there I am at three o'clock in the morning, I'm waiting for those demons to manifest in a room. They come in a form of a cloud and immediately I have this thought, "Grab a chair from your living room and put it in your bedroom and tell the demons to watch you worship Jesus." And so, that's exactly what I did. I grabbed a chair, I set it in my bedroom, and I looked to the cloud, to the demonic spirits, and I said, "You sit here in this chair and you're going to watch me worship Jesus in front of you." And from that I realized it-

Sid Roth: It was almost like the anger Jesus had in the temple. It was a righteous indignation.

William Wood: That's exactly right. And one of the things I realized from that is what gives Satan's presence purpose is our attention. The entire time leading up to this, all I was doing was focusing on the devil. I wasn't focusing on Christ. And so, when I put the chair there and I turned my back, it was just instinctive of me to do this. I didn't realize what I was doing. I was basically taking my attention from the demonic and putting it on the person of Jesus Christ.

And so, I just began to worship. I began to magnify Jesus. I began to say, "King of kings and lord of lords, I lift you up. You are my redeemer." Now, I just began to magnify him in my bedroom. And as a default of that, within five minutes I turn around, the demon had materialized into human forms sitting there on the floor in a cowardly position in fear. And I realize, this is the normal state or nature of a demonic in relation to me, in fear of me realizing who I am in Christ.

Sid Roth: You have revelation knowledge that few do. And in your brand new book Every Day a Victory, William teaches on how to have a decisive victory over the major tactics of the devil. Tell us two ways.

William Wood: Well, yes, from this encounter, I was just blown away of the freedom that came to that. And so, I began to study the scriptures for a blueprint of how the demonic realm works. And I found in Genesis chapter three, you look in the fall of man, in that account, you notice that Adam and Eve didn't have a sin nature. They were not prone to sin. They were perfect in every aspect of the way. So, how did they fall? How did the enemy entrap them in his bondage? Well, when you read through that account, you realize there's really two predominant ways that he comes against us. Deception and temptation.

Well, the power of deception is the ignorance of truth. Josiah chapter four, verse six says, "My people perish for a lack of knowledge." John chapter eight, verse 32 says, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free." So, by that context, the truth I don't know is what's keeping me bound. And the way that the enemy comes against truth is by introducing facts. You say, every truth is a fact, but not every fact is a truth. For instance, he may wait until you're sick and say, "Did God really say that by his wounds you are healed? Why are you sick?" And so, he'll take something that's a fact to undermine truth.

And the second way that he comes against us is temptation. We maybe ask about, "How in the world could he tempt us?" By projecting his own nature upon us. For instance, when a spirit of anxiety comes against us, the reason we experience anxiety is because that spirit itself is anxious, is literally looking for my human agreement. And so, what the demonic does, it finds its power in our agreement with what it projects upon us.

Sid Roth: So, our words can open access to the devil has come to kill and destroy and rob, but God has come, God has come to give you peace, purpose.

When we return, William will demonstrate the supernatural power of worship that set him free and drove the devil meshugah. That's a Yiddish word that means nuts. Many, many of you are going to have major miracles. Be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural!

Sid Roth: Okay. We have a third guest, maybe a fourth guest because we've invited the Holy Spirit to be with us.

Audience: Yes.

Sid Roth: But our third guest is Chantal Wood, William's wife. And we had both of them at our prayer meeting yesterday and she demonstrated a gift that few believers or non-believers have ever, ever seen. They didn't even know it was biblical, it is. And the fruit that I saw was so amazing, I wanted her to tell us a bit about this gift. I mean, you don't seem like that bold a person as I saw you at that prayer meet, are you? I'm just curious.

Chantal Wood: I'm very quiet.

Sid Roth: That's what I thought. So, if I was God and I wanted to demonstrate a gift, she'd be the one I'd pick for this bold, trust me, bold gift. And some of the stories she has from this gift are absolutely phenomenal.

Now, after she shares, William is going to share probably one of the most important things you're ever going to learn, how to live a lifestyle of worship. We know we're supposed to worship, but how do you do it? He's going to demonstrate. And guess what? Have everyone at home and everyone in the studio audience, you're all included, practice what he teaches. And here's my promise to you. Your life will be totally transformed for the better. You want your life transformed for the better? I want my life transformed for the better. When you start operating in this gift yourself. Now, Chantal's gift is different. Not everyone can do that, but William's gift, everyone can worship God. So, Chantal, you're a nice, quiet person, how in the world and what was this gift that happened?

Chantal Wood: It happened about six years ago and it came through honor. It came by honoring God, honoring the Holy Spirit and honoring how he moved through me. And it was this shout that started coming through me.

Sid Roth: Tell us a little biblical evidence of the shout.

Chantal Wood: Absolutely, Sid. Well, in Isaiah 42:13, it says, "The Lord will go forth like a warrior. He will arouse his zeal like a man of war. He will utter a shout. Yes, he will raise a war cry. He will prevail against his enemies. And in Job 8:21, it says, "He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouting."

Sid Roth: By the way, there's a lot more, a lot more, but those are two good ones. But you know what's even more important? It's not important to fall or not fall. What is more important is, what is the fruit of the biblical shout? What have you seen?

Chantal Wood: Yes. Well, I've seen many different things come from this shout. I've seen impartation, I've seen healing, I've seen deliverance. I've seen ... Thank you Lord. Yeah. And when we were in Colorado, I was praying over this gentleman and he came up for impartation. We were doing and impartation service. And I put two fingers on his hand and he just went out with the Holy Spirit and I decreed breaker anointing and I shouted over him and started beginning to prophesy over him. And when I prophesied, I started shouting and shaking over him, prophesying that he would have a deliverance ministry and this deliverance ministry would be a big thing for him later on. And he ministers in Africa. He sees witch doctors come to Jesus, he actually delivers witch doctors, and before he even left the conference, he started doing deliverance.

Sid Roth: So, I'm going to have her demonstrate this gift in a moment, but because of time constraints, we're going to do an extended segment as soon as we go off the air. What I really want, and William, you can start this, I want you to demonstrate the supernatural power of worship that sets you free from one year of being tormented by demons, I mean, every night. And when he demonstrates and teaches, many of you will be set free from demons, curses, emotional problems, physical diseases. Better yet, you will learn how to supernaturally worship the Lord and get the same results.

But before William demonstrates and teaches you, I want to tell you there is even a greater gift, a greater miracle than anything we have talked about. And the greater gift is how God became man and dwelt among us. And God wants to be housed inside of you. He wants your body to be his new temple, his new tabernacle. He wants you to know him, hear his voice. Everything you saw happening to Moses, everything you saw happening to Paul, should be normal. He wants to live and dwell inside of you.

In fact, Jeremiah 31:31 says, "A new covenant is coming not according to the covenant I made with the House of Israel and Judah, which they violated, but this is the covenant that I will make. I will put my word inside of you." His word became flesh. His name is Yeshua, Jesus. "I will remember your sins no more, and you will know me." Repeat this prayer quickly after me, out loud. Dear God.

Audience: Dear God.

Sid Roth: I've made many mistakes.

Audience: I've made many mistakes.

Sid Roth: For which I'm so sorry.

Audience: For which I'm so sorry.

Sid Roth: I believe your blood.

Audience: I believe your blood.

Sid Roth: Will allow me to know you.

Audience: Will allow me to know you.

Sid Roth: Will allow me to be forgiven of all of my sins.

Audience: Will allow me to be forgiven of all of my sins.

Sid Roth: And your word.

Audience: And your word.

Sid Roth: You will dwell within me.

Audience: You will dwell within me.

Sid Roth: I make you my messiah and Lord.

Audience: I make you my messiah and Lord.

Sid Roth: Amen.

Audience: Amen.

Sid Roth: It is mandatory you go to the extended segment. Can't wait to be with you. Go there right now.
