

Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. Jay-Z, drugs, money was my guest's world. Then, Jesus visited him in his glorified body. Next.

I've fought for myself in every area of life, but one. I knew nothing until I discovered a realm where the truth isn't what it seems, a realm where the truth becomes reality. I've spent over 50 years investigating the world of the supernatural. Every moment has led up to the main event. Millions of Jewish people will be saved all over the world. God's heart is for all to believe, for none to perish. It's called the greater glory. Do you believe? It's Supernatural!

Sid Roth: Welcome Holy Spirit. Go and flow. My guest, Enrique Pascal was raised in a fatherless home where they co-mingled Catholicism and witchcraft. He was abused by his mother and his grandmother. Enrique, explain your childhood.

Enrique Pascal: I Was born in Panama, born in Panama, and I was raised in Brooklyn, New York. I came to America at the age of five and we lived in a fatherless home and there was a lot of abuse, a lot of mistreatment in our home. And, the religion is called Santeria. And Santeria is a religion that started in Cuba in the late-1900s. And it's a mixture of being Catholic. Also, it goes to Western African belief. So it's a mixture of African, and voodoo, and also being Catholic. So, we had a lady come to our home. Actually, two women came to our home one night. It was midnight. They waited for midnight. And they turned off all the lights in the house. And so, when they came inside the home, I was terrified. The belief that there were evil spirits and these women had the power to take it out.

And so, they came in, turned off all the lights in the house, and they were chanting, they were smoking cigars, burning sage. And this one lady, the head lady, she put me on her back, had my head here and my leg here, and she spun me around at such a velocity, I was so dizzy. And she was yelling and chanting. And then, after that, my sister had next and I watched that terrified. So after she did all of this stuff, the ritual, and went through the home, and driving out evil spirits, she told us we are good now. "The spirits are gone. You guys are clean." Well, that was a lie. Instead of driving out the evil spirits, she drove them in. And so, at an early age, Sid, I was having visitations. From six to seven, I had demonic visitations. I had, what we call, sleep paralysis, where demons will come and they'll jump on you in your sleep.

And so, it happened night after night. My mom was so abusive, one time she grabbed an ashtray and she cracked my head wide open with it. My grandmother one time asked me to empty the trash. So, I decided, Sid, to take a shower first. Bad decision. She opened up the shower with an extension cord and beat me to beyond recognition. So I grew up angry. I grew up violent. I grew up having to always defend myself with a... I had such rage. But at the age of eight, Jesus came and met me.

Sid Roth: This was in a dream?

Enrique Pascal: In a dream. I was asleep. And the Lord came to me and he spoke to me. Not the physical Jesus. It was the glory Jesus, meaning if you were to take the most brilliant stone, let's say, diamond, the most flawless diamond in the world, and put that diamond right next to the sun, Sid, no comparison to the glory. And so, he came to me in my sleep and he spoke to me in my native language. And he said to me, "Hoy es el dia de Jesús," meaning, today is the day of Jesus. He said that to me.

But what happens, Sid? Slowly, the lord was removing the rage, and the anger, and the abuse from me. And I began to have compassion. I began to care about things that a normal eight-year-old should not care about. I began to see things differently. And today, what the Lord shared with me was that was my exodus. That was him separating me from my culture and my nature.

Sid Roth: But you dropped out of school.

Enrique Pascal: Yeah.

Sid Roth: You got into a life of crime, vowed to show your father and the world what a father should be like. But at 15 you fathered your first child.

Enrique Pascal: Yes. Yes, Sid. I dropped out of school. My family did not have the funds needed to live. And so, I became the head of the household at an early age. And so, I had to find means to take care of my family. I joined the military first. Right? I joined the military first. And then, I came home one day on leave, and excited to be home, but the landlord was not excited to see my mom. And he told her, "I'm going to put you out." So I looked at her and said, "What's going on here? I'm sending you all my money." And she said not to worry about it. So I realized that the money I was sending was not enough to make it happen. So I end up AWOLing from the military, just to find work to make more money.

So eventually, I end up getting a job on Wall Street, working at this bank, at the time, called Marine Midland Bank. And we were able to make more money at that point and we moved out of that place to a better place. And then, the opportunity came for me to become a drug dealer. And I took it, because we needed more money. And so, I turned to a life of crime, had my first child of 15, wanted to show the world and my father what a father should be like.

Sid Roth: You were busted. What happened?

Enrique Pascal: Yeah. I was looking at a minimum of five years, maximum 40. So this was serious. And so, I went to court, and this is when I began to see the hand of God. This judge who had all rights to give me 40 years in prison, looked at me and said, "I'm giving you 10 years for the crime you committed." And, the glory of God fell in that courtroom. He says, "But, I am going to erase every year and put you on one year probation."

Sid Roth: Then, you got connected with Jay-Z. And then, what happened?

Enrique Pascal: In 1992, I met Jay-Z. He was dating my sister. They dated probably, I believe, six years or so. And when met him, he had this passion for music. So, as time progressed, I asked him one day, I said, "Listen, you're going to make it big one day. Will you allow me to do your after parties?" So in 1999, he said, "Yes, make it on this promise." And we went on this tour called the Hard Knock Life Tour. We toured 55 cities in 10 weeks.

Sid Roth: How profitable was this?

Enrique Pascal: He said it was nothing for me to make 20,000, 30,000, 100,000 in one night.

Sid Roth: How many of these did you do in this short period?

Enrique Pascal: 55 cities in 10 weeks.

Sid Roth: That's a lot of money.

Enrique Pascal: And so, after doing Jay-Z's parties, we were known for doing parties and stuff like that. And we began to do parties for other individuals in the music industry. So, it became a very successful, lucrative business.

Sid Roth: Enrique had another encounter with Jesus. And the Messiah said to him, "You must give up everything that would take you away from Jesus." Be right back.

Enrique Pascal says, "There is no bondage that can hold you when you walk in the authority of this teaching."

Enrique Pascal: In my brand new and exclusive three CD set, Breaking Chains and Building Shields: Strategies to get free, stay free, and live under God's protection, I wanted to give you my personal experiences and encounters on how I defeated the oppression in my life and give you step-by-step instructions. When you know that the spoken word has power, the spoken word would do what the spoken word is designed to do. The spoken word is Jesus in word form. And a lot of times, when someone is dealing with frustrations, dealing with any oppression, they try many different tactics and things to receive their healing. I was impressed with Holy Spirit to make it really simple that when you take it in, the power of God is going to take over. I've helped countless people become free, and these teachings will help you as well, because the word of God does not fail.

Sid Roth: Enrique also says that the word of God is alive and has a heartbeat. And the spoken word is your most powerful spiritual weapon.

Enrique Pascal: There is power in the spoken word, his word is his shield. His word does not fail. The chains that are in your life will be broken and God is going to protect you with his shield. When he said, "Let there be light." He was saying, "Let there be Jesus." And when he spoke the light, that light removed the darkness. And that's the power of the spoken word. So when you speak the word, you're speaking Jesus in your situation to bring you your deliverance, your healing, your breakthrough, because Jesus is the spoken word and Jesus has never lost a battle.

It's time to finally get God's strategies working for you. All right. Enrique, you're in your car and you're in heaven at the same time, how's that work?*

Enrique Pascal: Oh, man. So, in 2004, the Lord was tugging on my heart in a major way and I felt him calling me to walk away from this life that I had, because I began to not enjoy the success that I was experiencing. And so, in 2004, my girlfriend and I at the time, who's my wife today, we were in the car, this car was a BMW convertible and I was thinking in my mind the words, thank you, because life was good, money was flowing, things seemed really well. I was thinking the words, thank you. And I looked up to the clouds to verbalize it. And while I'm driving, I'm approaching this red light. So, I stopped at the light and when I looked up, I heard the voice of God come from the clouds. And he said, "Give it up."

And I thought, "Give what up?" And when I thought that, it was a vacuum, if you will, and I am in the presence of God, Jehovah. And it was the same presence that I saw when I was eight-years-old, the same glory.

We began to have a conversation, not by mouth, but we were conversing at the speed of thought. So I would think something, I said, "Give what up, Lord?" And he said, "Anything that would distract you. Anything that would take you away from me, get rid of it now." And at that point, I thought, "How long?" I then learned that because I am not dead, my body's in the car, Satan is speaking to my body. The Lord showed that to me after, because Satan put a timeframe on God's instructions. So I said, "How long?" He says, "21 days." And I agreed. And when I agreed, I'm back in the car again. The light turns green and I'm blinking saying, "What in the world is this?" So I look at my girlfriend at the time and I said, "I'm giving you up. I'm giving this up."

Sid Roth: You have gone over big!

Enrique Pascal: I'm giving everything up, right? And she said, "What's wrong with you?" I said, "I was just in heaven." She said, "How were you in heaven? You are in the car with me." I said, "I was in heaven. I saw the Lord." And I explained everything to her. Well, she knew it was true when I gave it all up for 21 days. But after that, Sid, I went back. And so, I did a concert that year in the month of November. And I was miserable. I was suicidal. I was depressed. The concert did well, but I was not in a good space. And so, after the concert, I went home and I cried like a baby. And I said, "Lord, if you give me something else to do, I do that and walk away." Well, I woke up the next morning with this amazing idea to take different designs and symbols and put it on women's T-shirts. And each slogan went back to a scripture, but nobody knew it. That's how ministry began for me.

Sid Roth: Let's fast-forward. 2008, you got, a nice way of calling it, detained.

Enrique Pascal: Oh, boy. Yes, Sid. So in 2008, I went to a wedding in Jamaica. Now, life is good. No more drugs, no more sinning. I am married. Business, serving God in ministry. Things are good. Okay? And so, I go to Jamaica, come back, and when I went to the airport in Charlotte, they held me up. And I'm like, "What's going on here? Why am I being held up? My plane's about to leave." And Sid, they did not care at all. Right? So I'm like, "Hey, what's happening here?" So they said, "Have you committed a crime before?" I said, "Yeah, but that's back in 1996. That's over." They said, "Yes, but not with Homeland Security."

So Sid, I was detained for 14 days. I had no idea how long they were going to hold me. So, they locked me up. And now, I am in this immigration jail. Now, the thing about this is so fascinating is, I knew in my heart I was going to jail, because I prayed on it and the Lord did not answer me as I wanted. So I said, "Lord, give me your scripture. Give me your scripture." And it was Philippians 4:12. I learned how to be comfortable in any and all situations, whether I am in plenty, or in lack, whether I am hungry, or well-fed. So, that was the scripture he gave me. I go to turn myself in, they lock me up. And I'm in this immigration jail. And when you are in immigration jail, you have all different nationalities in this jail. And I'm sitting down with my head down and I'm confused and I'm like, "Lord, I don't understand this. I don't understand you. When I did wrong, you set me free. Right now, I'm detained. How long? Am I facing deportation?" I'm having a talk with God.

And then, this guy from Africa comes and says, "Do you need a Bible?" And I looked up and said, "Yes, please. Please bring me a Bible." And he said, "What cell are you in?" And when I looked up and pointed, it was cell 412. I knew that God was saying something. So, I went to sleep, and woke up, and I said, "You know what, Lord? I am going to make the most of this. I don't know how long I'll be here, but I am going to make the most of this." So, I'm in this jail doing Bible study. The word said is being translated in all of these different languages, because people are around me and translating what I am saying in those languages. So the Lord took me global while I was detained.

Sid Roth: Sid, fast-forward, you're now in a church, you started a church, but you're frustrated. People were coming into your church, messed up, and leaving messed up. It shouldn't be that way.

Enrique Pascal: Same way they came in.

Sid Roth: What happened?

Enrique Pascal: So Sid, I was impressed by the Lord 29th of January to go on a fast. It was a 40-day fast. No food, just water. And I am consuming the word of God. I am praying for hours. I am reading 32 chapters a day, just consuming in the things of God. And on the 14th day, I had a six-hour encounter with Jesus. He came into the bedroom. He said to me, "It is never a person. It is always a spirit."

And it goes back he said to Matthew chapter 16. When Jesus says, "Who do men say that I am?" And then they say, "Some say you are Elijah. Some say you are John the Baptist. Some say you are the prophet Isaiah." And then, he says, "But who do you say I am?" And Peter says, "Thou art the Christ, the son of the living God." And Jesus says something very interesting. He says, "Simon Bar-Jonah, flesh and blood did not reveal this to you." He says, "Your name shall be Peter the Rock. And upon this revelation, I will build my church." In the same conversation he says, "I'm going to the cross." And Peter says, "You can't go." And the next thing Jesus says to Peter is, "Get thee behind me, Satan." So in both conversations, he acknowledged God and Satan. It wasn't Peter. It was the spirit behind Peter every single time.

And so, what he taught me is he taught me through this encounter that you never meet people, you don't meet people, you meet the spirit that's occupying that person. And so, when I saw that, I began to understand deliverance. The person didn't do that, it was the demon in the person, because we are always influenced by a spirit, good or bad, right? And so, when I saw that, I understood deliverance. And then, forgiveness came and compassion came, because now I see spirit and not people.

Sid Roth: I'm going to say a quick prayer, but it's the most important prayer you'll ever pray. That Jesus forgive you of your sins and live inside of you and become real to you. Repeat out loud, dear God.

Dear God.

Sid Roth: I've made many mistakes.

I've made many mistakes.

Sid Roth: I'm so sorry.

I'm so sorry.

Sid Roth: I believe.

I believe.

Sid Roth: The blood of Jesus.

The blood of Jesus.

Sid Roth: Washes away every mistake.

Washes away every mistake.

Sid Roth: And I'm clean.

And I'm clean.

Sid Roth: It's so good to be clean.

It's so good to be clean.

Sid Roth: And now that I'm clean.

And now that I'm clean.

Sid Roth: Jesus, come and live inside of me.

Jesus, come and live inside of me.

Sid Roth: I make you my Messiah.

I make you my Messiah.

Sid Roth: And my Lord.

And my Lord.

Sid Roth: And my savior.

And my savior.

Sid Roth: Amen.

Sid Roth: You have three angels that travel with you.

Enrique Pascal: Yes, sir.

Sid Roth: I want you to pray for the viewers right now as God directs.

Enrique Pascal: So, I want to lead you through a few confessions and then pray for you. Say, Father.

Father.

Enrique Pascal: Forgive me.

Forgive me.

Enrique Pascal: For blocking you.

Enrique Pascal: I release.

I release.

Enrique Pascal: Anything.

Anything.

Enrique Pascal: That is not of you.

That is not of you.

Enrique Pascal: Now, father, in the name of Jesus, I want to rebuke anything that is not of you right now. Any spirit that is not of you right now with the finger of God, I command any darkness, any oppression, I rebuke you in the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus against you, the fire of God right now, any unwelcoming spirit, any dark spirit out right now, out of their life. Loose God's people in the name of Jesus. If you are present, I have authority over you, the fire of God against you. I bind you. I rebuke you. Under the authority of the name, you must obey. I send the word of healing. I send the word of deliverance. I send the word of restoration, who the Son says, "Free is free and deep." I bind you. I command you now to let God's people go. In the name of Jesus, two opposing kingdoms cannot dwell in the same place.

I speak now the Kingdom of light at you in the name of Jesus. The Kingdom of Heaven told you in Jesus' name, "Loose that man. Loose that woman. Loose that boy. Loose that girl." The fire of God against you in Jesus' name.

Sid Roth: Freedom.
