

Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest was raised in a secular Jewish home, went to Heaven a non-believer, and came back a lover of Jesus. Next.

I've thought for myself in every area of life, but one. I knew nothing until I discovered a realm where the truth isn't what it seems. A realm where the truth becomes reality. I've spent over 50 years investigating the world of the supernatural. Every moment has led up to the main event. Millions of Jewish people will be saved all over the world. God's heart is for all to believe, for none to perish. It's called the greater glory. Do you believe?

It's Supernatural!

Sid Roth: Welcome, Holy Spirit. Go and flow. My guest, Brooke Allsbrook, was raised in a Jewish family in Long Island, living like most people for self. But because of one dream, Jesus became the center of her life.

I got to hear about this dream, Brooke.

Brooke Allsbrook: I had a dream where fire came down from Heaven and balls of fire like superfast. It was small and then it got so big and vast, completely engulfing the entire surface came right for me. It was right out of the sky fast and consumed me.

Sid Roth: In the dream, what did you feel when it came on you?

Brooke Allsbrook: Well, I could physically feel it penetrate my being, my body, and I convulsed in my sleep. I remember that. I remember the impact of what that fire felt like as it engulfed my body. As I was lifted into a heavenly space, it was almost like layers of my life just started to peel away. I could almost see my life flash before me and little by little just lifted into a heavenly space. And it was amazing. It was amazing.

Came into a mansion, the most beautiful or innate, beautiful place I had ever seen.

Sid Roth: Excuse me. Did you have any paradigm for what Heaven's supposed to look like?

Brooke Allsbrook: No, that's not at all. No understanding whatsoever.

Sid Roth: That's what I thought.

Brooke Allsbrook: And as I entered this heavenly space, I saw angels and I didn't know that they were angels at the time. They just looked like glorified people, just so perfect, happy, beautiful, filled with joy. There was no yoke of bondage or oppression of any kind. They were totally free in every way.

And I could feel the presence of a king, a presence of majesty. And it was like a signal to my spirit, to my soul, to recognize a king. To recognize and to bow down before a king. I looked through the archways of this mansion because there were no doors. It was just these giant archways and they were so beautifully decorated with these ornate, detailed gilded, gold moldings. And as you look through, you could see the skyline of Heaven with hundreds, what could be millions of mansion upon mansion upon mansion.

And as I look through the archway to the skyline. All the clouds came together to form the face of God. No one said God. No one said Jesus. But my spirit bore witness to God's Spirit. And for the very first time I identified as a child of God and I knew that He was real, which I so frequently doubted.

Sid Roth: How many years ago was this?

Brooke Allsbrook: This was in 2006.

Sid Roth: And yet you're almost experiencing it from what my observation says, you're almost experiencing it as if it was the first time when you're telling me.

Brooke Allsbrook: Well, what's wild about this Sid is that so many times I've told the story and have told it in a way where I have not experienced God's presence like I am actually feeling right now. That is very much the Lord and his presence wanting this story to obviously be told and for our audience and our viewers.

Sid Roth: Well, it's even more than that.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yeah.

Sid Roth: You are exuding the atmosphere that you picked up in Heaven. It's pouring out of you right now.

Brooke Allsbrook: You're going to make me cry.

Sid Roth: Well, I'm not going to make you cry. You're already crying.

Brooke Allsbrook: The Lord is making me.

Sid Roth: And then you kind of sealed everything. What happened?

Brooke Allsbrook: Yeah. Three days later, my best friend took me to a Billy Graham meeting in Brooklyn, New York, and that's where I sealed the deal.

Sid Roth: What a wonderful, so you could kind of almost put it together. A lot of Jewish people I meet have encounters where they actually are taken to Heaven and it takes them years to put together what transpired. God had you on fast-forward.

Now, after becoming a believer, you had a counterfeit dream. It's almost like the Bible says the devil comes to steal and kill and destroy ...

Brooke Allsbrook: That's right.

Sid Roth: ... what God has just done. I had things like that happen to me after I absolutely had the most amazing supernatural encounter as a Jew to come to know Jesus. I had the devil try and steal it from me.

What did he do to you?

Brooke Allsbrook: What he was showing me is that there is a very strong deception in the world. A counterfeit spirit that sometimes looks like God and appears like God but is not God at all. And so in the dream, I was a new believer at the time and I was sharing my faith with my best friend who was seeing a psychic.

In the dream we were in Jerusalem and we were standing on, there's a backdrop just like this, and there's this really attractive alluring man standing close by and he's exuding this just almost magnetic pull. And my best friend is standing with him and she's like, "Brooke, Brooke, you have to come here. You have to see this." And I was like in my gut, I knew that that was not for me.

And he had these two stone tablets and they were pointed outward toward the heavens and it almost was like a representation of Moses. It looked like God, like an angel of light. And he was holding out these two stone tablets that sent out electric signals like electric waves, electricity that was just bouncing on top of the entire skyline of Jerusalem and beyond.

And so I began to inch forward and I began to take the stone tablet that he held out. As I did that same spirit of deception that permeated the entire skyline went into my body. And I was shocked with waves of the demonic. I had no grip for this and I had no understanding. But it was like the Lord was showing me that there are counterfeits, there are people out there that can tell you your future, that can read into your life, but it's not coming in the Spirit of God. And it's not for me, it's not for anyone.

You said it before actually, you were like, "God is a jealous God. He wants to speak to each and every one of us, but He does not want us to hear from someone else. He wants us to go to Him for these things."

Sid Roth: Now, when I became a brand-new Jewish believer in the Messiah, I immediately told my mother. I didn't have the nerve to tell my father, but my father found out. Long story, which I won't take time to tell you, but the front page of a major newspaper in Washington DC had a headline, White Collar Jesus Freaks.

Brooke Allsbrook: What?

Sid Roth: And I was the first story. That's how my father found out. I was a believer in Jesus.

Brooke Allsbrook: Oh, my gosh.

Sid Roth: How about you? What happened with your parents?

Brooke Allsbrook: It's such a long process for us. I remember one time I just cried. I wept to my parents and I was just like, I just want us to be on the same page. I just want us to be connected. And my dad actually said to me, he said, "Well, maybe it's your job to bring us there." And ironically, when I told my father my dream and I told him that Yeshua, Jesus, came to me and my dream that I died in my dream and I went to Heaven, he said to me, "I believe you. I believe you." He said, "Because it happened to me, too."

Sid Roth: He would've never told you if you hadn't had that experience.

Brooke Allsbrook: He said he was with his buddies traveling, backpacking through Europe and he had a dream that Jesus came to him in his dream and his buddies were like, "Kenny, go back to sleep. You're on something. It's not real."

Sid Roth: Real briefly.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yeah.

Sid Roth: What's your life like today? Are you married? Do you have children?

Brooke Allsbrook: Oh, my gosh.

Sid Roth: What's going on?

Brooke Allsbrook: God has been so faithful, and I think this is another thing with my parents becoming believers. They have seen the goodness of God flow in my life and just create amazing situations for me that I could never have come up with on my own. The way God brought my husband into my life, who is so amazing. He's amazing, and my four beautiful children, the congregation that we're a part of and how He's just kind of provided just miraculously in so many ways. I mean, every day, but He's just provided for us. I think this too has just opened my parents up to be like, this could only be God.

Sid Roth: Well, people worldwide are getting progressively desperate.

Brooke Allsbrook: That's true.

Sid Roth: Do you see this as the beginning of a great spiritual awakening?

Brooke Allsbrook: I do. I absolutely do. I have friends that are just saying to me regularly now I'm praying, praying, praying. People that I have never even talked to about God are saying I'm praying and I think God is bringing us to a place of desperation. But here's the thing, Sid, what happened on October 7th, those terrible barbaric acts of violence against our people, we are seeing sin ... It's like the veil is being pulled back and we are seeing sin revealed like we've never seen before. It is just percolating.

It is percolating and people see it. Not believers, non-believers, it's clear it's in plain daylight from the rise of anti-Semitism that we're seeing on college campuses to even the shifts of support of Israel in the world in big and little ways. The world is seeing what is happening and it is so dark and it is so ugly.

Sid Roth: I see it as just a setup by God for everyone to see the distinguishing thing between evil and good, whether they believe in Jesus or not.

Brooke Allsbrook: Absolutely, absolutely. But I feel like we're coming into a time when, to your point, there is going to be a great spiritual awakening. It's happening right now. It's happening right now. I feel even in my own personal prayer life, and this is not just for me. This is an encouragement for all believers that God wants to so specifically speak to our lives, speak to our hearts, and in preparation for what's to come.

We are going to face some really heavy duty times. We're going to experience an outpouring of the presence of God, but it's not going to come without persecution and we have to be ready. We have to be able to discern his voice in the midst of chaos, confusion, anxiety, fear, and right now, Jewish people around the world and just in general, they are gripped with the magnitude of the evil that we're being faced with as a people.

Sid Roth: It was just so sudden almost when White House the colleges, I mean, all of a sudden this anti-Semitism reared up. I can't imagine it being any different than pre-Hitler, Germany. Are you aware the voice you're hearing may not be your friend? Be right back.

Do you want to get powered up with your own spiritual GPS to receive heavenly downloads? Are you yearning for supernatural encounters and for dreams from God that can change your life overnight? Brooke Allsbrook's great passion is to inspire you to step up into the new prophetic move of God and clearly discern his voice to get on track for victory during these troubled times.

Brooke Allsbrook: I'm excited to share with you my personal journey about how God awakens me inwardly to see the opposition that we're facing in the world, the deception that we're facing as believers and how he imparted to me strategies that hinder us from coming into his presence more fully from hearing his voice and to walking in the fullness in everything that he has for us.

God wants to make us a prophetic people. Walking in the prophetic is not always easy. I want to teach you about some of the ways that I have learned to hear God's voice and all the ways that I've made mistakes. This is an opportunity for you to hear from someone like me, Long Island Jewish girl, nothing unique about me other than the fact that I heard God and I said yes.

In her exclusive new three CD set Awakening Your Prophetic Voice Brooke lays out a scriptural foundation and offers personal prayers over you as she shares her God-given revelation. You'll learn how to get into God's secret place where you can listen without distractions to more clearly hear God's voice. Find strategies and insights to reverse setbacks, overcome trials, and win out over adversity. Discover how prophecy is your navigational tool guiding you toward God's unique path for you.

Brooke Allsbrook: God wants to entrust us with words, discernment and vision for our lives, and He wants to tell us things about our future. He wants us to be able to discern his voice amidst all the other voices that are pulling at us and calling at us, especially with the opposition that we're facing and the evil that is so clearly in the world. We need to be able to discern what is of God and what is not of God. It could be a matter of life and death for some of us.

Sid Roth: Brooke, you say everyone can have a prophetic voice. What do you mean by that?

Brooke Allsbrook: It is our destiny. It is every person's destiny that they and God's will for them, that we be able to hear and discern His voice. In Joel 2:22-32, it talks about, and even Peter and on the day of Shavuot cited this scripture about God. There being a day when God would pour out his Spirit and that we would be able to prophesy.

And I think honestly, we tend to think that prophecy is just the foretelling of the future. It's not, and I'm not claiming to be that at all. I'm saying each one of us has the inheritance from God. When we believe in Yeshua and we have the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, we are able to hear clearly from the Lord and He wants us to. That is His desire for us, that each and every person would be able to hear from Heaven what God has perfectly designed for him.

Sid Roth: You say there are many voices in the world. Explain that.

Brooke Allsbrook: I just feel like we're bombarded by our own thinking and the influence that we get from television. I mean, media, books, social, it's all around us. It's just this, it's just pervasive.

Sid Roth: Most people are addicted to the news. Addicted.

Brooke Allsbrook: Truth. Absolutely, and that's an interesting point. I feel like so many people I know, too. It's first to their phones and information. Unbelief is going to block us and we have to choose to believe that the Word of God is true and that that is the ultimate authority. And when we fully align with that and submit our will, then we are able to come into agreement with God's Spirit and our spirit. They can converge together when we believe with our whole heart. And then all of that has to be filtered through the Word of God, which God gives us. He gives us the mind of Messiah.

Sid Roth: Brooke, if we want to share the good news, should we use what's known as long-term friendship evangelism? What do you suggest?

Brooke Allsbrook: Yes and no because ...

Sid Roth: That's such a Jewish answer.

Brooke Allsbrook: Right? I know, I know. I mean, ultimately I would love to grow in this area, and I'm sure there are many out there too who want to do more prophetic evangelism, but I think that it is so wonderful when we befriend people and we don't shove the Gospel down their face and we don't just say, "Oh, you have to believe. You have to believe." No, it's a testimony. It's a living ... Your life is a living testimony, so I just see it as building friendships. Eventually, you can speak into their life.

Sid Roth: You said, and most people would agree with you. God has an answer.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yeah.

Sid Roth: The answer their heart is crying for, the answer your heart is crying for. It's because God is so filled with love. We are in between two moves of the Spirit of God, the last and the next. I believe the next will be the greatest move of God's Spirit in history. I believe the next will be so transformative that entire cities are going to surrender to Jesus. These encampments at the universities that the inmates of the asylum are running right now. The glory ...

Brooke Allsbrook: Thank you Lord.

Sid Roth: ... the greater glory, the magnificent glory of God is going to sweep over them, sweep over the universities, the high schools, the junior highs, the elementary schools, even the kindergartens.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yes, Lord.

Sid Roth: Even in your homes, even in your marketplace, even in your work, it's going to just sweep like a cloud. And when it sweeps upon someone, they could be an ardent atheist pointing their finger at God and they're going to say, "I'm sorry God." Because they're going to repent because they've come into the presence of the living God. They'll have no choice but to be flat on their face. That's what we're coming into, and God wants you to be a leader in this. And the way you're going to be a leader in this, it's really easy. You first have God not on the outside, but inside of you.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yes.

Sid Roth: Doesn't that make more sense? You can't drive a car so well from the outside. You have to be inside the car. God has to and wants to, and you desire Him to be inside of you. I want you, even if you've set a prayer like this before, make it a rededication of your life. Say this out loud with me.

Dear God,

Dear God,

Sid Roth: I've made so many mistakes ...

I've made so many mistakes ...

Sid Roth: For which I'm so sorry.

For which I'm so sorry.

Sid Roth: I'm so grateful ...

I am so grateful ...

Sid Roth: For the blood of Jesus.

For the blood of Jesus.

Sid Roth: The blood of Jesus has washed away every sin.

Yes, the blood of Jesus has washed away every sin.

Sid Roth: I have no past.

I have no past.

Sid Roth: You've erased it from the book of life.

You've erased it from the book of life.

Sid Roth: And I'm clean.

And I am clean.

Sid Roth: It's so good to be clean.

Yes, it is so good to be clean.

Sid Roth: I have no past.

I have no past.

Sid Roth: Only a wonderful future.

Only a wonderful future.

Sid Roth: Jesus, come inside of me.

Jesus, come inside of me.

Sid Roth: I make you my Lord and Savior.

I make you my Lord and Savior.

Sid Roth: Amen.

Amen.

Sid Roth: Now, I happen to know something about you. Studio audience and viewing audience. If you have a problem of pain in your head, neck, back, throat, anywhere in your body, anywhere, whether I've said it or not, I would like you right now to do the easiest thing you ever did in your life.

It's harder to go see a doctor, have x-rays and EKGs and all the tests that you have that's a little more difficult. I am going to make it easy for you. You have a pain in your back stand up right now and bend over and see if it's gone. Studio audience, you have a pain in your neck? You know what you do? I didn't call you a pain in the neck, but just move your head. You at home. Come on now. I'm looking at you, too. There are people that have arthritis in their hands and fingers and wrists.

Well, come on now. Move into your healing and your elbows. If I could see it, I would see a healing angel walking throughout our audience right now and now healing Angel is not confined to our studio. They're right where you are right now in your home, and you just thank God for your healing, but I don't feel like I'm healed. Big deal. Without faith, you can't please God. Faith calls those things that are not as if they are.

Brooke Allsbrook: They are.

Sid Roth: You hear a word of God. I just spoke a word from the living God. Now it's up to you to act by faith in Yeshua's name.

Brooke Allsbrook: Yes. Hallelujah. Hallelujah.

Sid Roth: I'll tell you this, healing physically is absolutely wonderful. But knowing Jesus is the best.

Brooke Allsbrook thought she was nothing special. Then God used just one supernatural dream showing her that Jesus was her Messiah. She didn't know anything about God's heavenly language, but then dreamed about it and woke up speaking in tongues. And again, her life changed in an instant.

In her exclusive three-CD set, Brooke goes deep into sharing with you how to hear supernaturally from God in this supernatural world.

Brooke Allsbrook: It is one of my greatest passions in life to talk about the reality of God and His supernatural ways, all the supernatural ways that he speaks to us about how God awakens me inwardly to see the opposition that we're facing in the world, the deception that we're facing as believers, and how he imparted to me strategies that hinder us from hearing His voice.

God wants to make us a prophetic people to discern His voice amidst all the other voices that are pulling at us and calling at us.
